ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:

- Your attendance is expected at every class meeting online, if scheduled and requested by the students. To be in attendance each week you must post a message to any of the class discussions in our course week.
- Readings and learning activities relevant to the weekly topic are identified in the course schedule and modules.
- Scholarly and knowledgeable participation requires that you read your assigned readings prior to joining the class discussions.
- Class discussions should incorporate new ideas, answering questions that increase the groups understanding, show consideration for other’s ideas, interacting with groups to focus on pertinent questions, or challenging conclusions to think about the material in a new way.
- An online course requires participation in all areas for accurate evaluation of performance including responding to the faculty requests or communications.
- To earn full participation points, you must post at least two substantive messages during the course week.
- If you have an emergency and cannot attend a class meeting or complete an assignment by the due date, you must contact your faculty by phone, e-mail, or text as soon as possible and make arrangements to make up the assignments.
- Blackboard course platforms have a tracking feature. This feature quantifies how often and when students are active in the course and also provides information if the student has accessed different pages of the course. The Blackboard tracking function may be utilized to verify student online participation.

RULES OF NETIQUETTE:

The term “netiquette” refers to written and unwritten rules regarding appropriate communication on the Internet. It will apply primarily to your interactions on the course Discussion Board, assignments both individual and group, and e-mail communications.

1. Help create a community of scholars by encouraging a cooperative win-win attitude in which all members of the class are willing to work together, each contributing in their own way.
2. Be helpful and be sure to do your part in an online class or in group work so that assignments can be completed.
3. Common courtesy and good manners, along with proper use of grammar, sentence structure, and correct spelling, are essential when taking an online class.
 - a. Use a meaningful title in the Subject line. For e-mail, include course number.
 - b. Use the person’s name you are writing to as a greeting in the first line of the message – this helps ensure you are writing to the intended person (group).
 - c. Close the posting by writing your full name at the end of the message.

SUL ROSS STATE UNIVERSITY RIO GRANDE COLLEGE
RN TO BSN COMPLETION PROGRAM
NURS 4301 – NURSING MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP
SUMMER 1 and 2 2022

4. Do not post anything too personal as all students in the class and your instructor will see what you write and the University archives all course materials;
5. Be courteous and respectful to students and faculty in the course.
 - a. There is a difference between making a statement that is a critical appraisal of an idea and criticizing someone for their point of view as it will be read by others;
 - b. Be careful with the tones of what you are communicating, sarcasm and subtle humor; one person's joke may be another person's insults;
 - c. Do not use all caps in the message box (it is considered shouting);
 - d. Do not use language that is inappropriate for a classroom setting or prejudicial in regard to gender, race or ethnicity.
6. Keep the messages you post to the Discussion Board relevant to the course and assignment, and provide a rationale including references as appropriate to support your point-of-view.
7. Avoid duplication. Read the previous discussions before you comment or ask a question as the information may have already been covered.
8. When posting a response, make sure you clarify the post to which you are responding.
9. If the topic you wish to address is already covered under an existing thread, do not start a new thread.
10. When responding to a specific comment, quote only the relevant part of the comment and stay focused on the assignment.
11. Try not to lurk, meaning you are just reading and not participating.
12. Quality of online communications/postings is important
 - a. It is not acceptable to present work or ideas of others as your own. If you quote from a source, use quotation marks and provide the original author's name, year, and the work from which the quotation is taken. If you paraphrase, use your own understanding of the work if possible and give credit to the original author by citing name, year and source of the idea.
 - b. If the posting is going to be long, use paragraphs;
 - c. Do not overuse acronyms like you use in text messaging. Some of the participants may not be familiar with acronyms;
 - d. Just as you would proofread a formal paper, before posting;
 - i. Read what you have written for content;
 - ii. Rethink what you have written for tone;
 - iii. Reread what you have written for organization and coherence; and
 - iv. Revise what you have written for grammar, punctuation and mechanics.
 - v. Once you submit your work, discussion, or e-mail, you cannot change what you have written.
13. Don't send large files as someone in your class may have a relatively slow internet connection and be sure to check for viruses when sending files.
14. Be patient if you do not get an immediate response to your postings as others may be on a different schedule. If it is urgent, you can contact other students of faculty by e-mail, phone, or text.

Academic Integrity

Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: Turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person's work as one's own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation; collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

Classroom Climate of Respect

Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation, and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.

Diversity Statement

I aim to create a learning environment for my students that supports a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, socioeconomic class, age, nationality, etc.). I also understand that the crisis of COVID, economic disparity, and health concerns, or even unexpected life events could impact the conditions necessary for you to succeed. My commitment is to be there for you and help you meet the learning objectives of this course. I do this to demonstrate my commitment to you and to the mission of Sul Ross State University to create an inclusive environment and care for the whole student as part of the Sul Ross Familia. If you feel like your
