SYLLABUS

Course Introduction: This core course gives students an in-depth study and discussion of Art History Styles and Movements from the 1400's to Early 1900s. This course will provide information of a practical and historical nature emphasizing the aesthetic values and cultural contexts of various works of art during that time. Students will gain understanding of the fine arts with an emphasis of the history, styles, movements and the necessary vocabulary of the methods, practices to easily discuss, evaluate, and critique work in the Fine Arts from approx.: 1400 Renaissance through the Early 1900s.. Starting with Precursors to the Renaissance and ending in 1900s.

Students will study the arts and their history to learn about our own creative expressions and those of our past. Studying the history of art is one way of exploring human cultures.

Core Skill Objectives:

The core skill objectives facilitated by Art Appreciation are:

1. Teamwork
2. communication
3. critical thinking
4. social responsibility
5. personal responsibility

Student Learning Outcomes:

Learning Outcomes facilitated by Art History Are:

1. Students will become aware of the vocabulary utilized to discuss and describe art and apply vocabulary in class/group discussions.

2. Students will learn Art Styles and Movements from 1400s to 1900s.
3. Students will be introduced to the tools and techniques of making art during that time.
4. Students will learn painting, sculpture and architecture
5. Students will gain an awareness of art history.
6. 6. Students will develop critical thinking skills through the examination of individual works of art.
7. Students will be able to synthesize, describe, and place works of art into social and historical contexts.
8. Students will learn to develop and express ideas clearly, consider the effects of meaning and message, as well as other communication skills by working together in groups, creating presentations, and detailed formal essays.
9. Students will develop teamwork skills by working together.
10. Students will develop an appreciation for the visual arts, crafts, and the human imagination.
11. Students will develop personal and social responsibility through management of individual and group requirements within the course, as well through examples of personal and social justice inherent in the history of art throughout the world.

Textbook and Materials for the class:

*There will be a textbook for this course: Art Across Time, Volume II. Laurie Schneider Adams.

*Notebook for taking notes and proper note taking utensils.

You will be graded on participation in class discussion and group discussions, power point presentations, essays, a midterm and final. I expect all students to participate in discussions, and if you rarely or never offer thoughtful comments or questions, you will only get half credit for your participation grade.

POST COVID COURSE INFO

If you are not feeling well, please do the work which will be on-line. Due to the impact of the virus I request that you wear your mask at all times, and keep a social separation of 6 feet. Covid testing will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays. Information will be released by the administration through your Sul Ross email. A vaccine day for free vaccines will be held on September 9th. If you test positive you need to fill out a "SELF REPORT". If you are in contact with someone who has the virus, the administration request you wait 4 days to test, and self report. Classroom excuses for more than a day must be granted by the administration.

Rules and Expectations:

There will not be "make up" days for missed class work because of absence. It is important to attend class and to participate in all classroom assignments. Excused absences will be assessed on case-by-case basis.

Plagiarizing, cheating, or any other dishonest behavior in the classroom will not be tolerated. Rules and regulation regarding plagiarism, dishonesty, and other issues concerning classroom participation can be found in University Rules and Regulations and student handbook. A student found to be engaging in these activities will be penalized to the full extent of university policy.

DO NOT CHEAT! I will not tolerate cheating and will fail a student who engages in cheating. I am always available to help/assist/guide a student.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic dishonesty hurts everyone and reduces the value of college degrees. Doing someone else's work, presenting the ideas and work of others as your own, submitting the same paper for multiple classes, and/or failing to cite your sources when you utilize the ideas of others, are all examples of academic dishonesty. It is your responsibility to read and understand the university's policy on academic dishonesty in the SRSU Student Handbook, as all violations will be taken seriously and handled through the appropriate university process. The Student Handbook can be found at: <https://www.sulross.edu/page/2454/student-handbook> (page 80).

Electronic Devices:

The use of any electrical device is deemed disruptive and will be prohibited; however, we will have creative assignments where we will use our phones.

Talking, Texting, making or receiving calls will not be permitted or tolerated. TURN YOUR PHONES OFF!

Libraries

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library in Alpine. Offers FREE resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library's website, library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your Lobold and password. Librarians are a tremendous resource for your coursework and can be reached in person, by email (srsulibrary@sulross.edu), or phone (432-837-8123).

SRSU Disability Services:

Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973.

It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request each semester for each class. Students seeking accessibility/accommodations services must contact Mary Schwartz, LPC-S, SRSU's Accessibility Services Coordinator at 432-837-8203 (please leave a message and we'll get back to you as soon as we can during working hours), or email mschwartz@sulross.edu. Our office is located on the first floor of Ferguson Hall (Suite 112), and our mailing address is P.O. Box C-122, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas, 79832.
