Course Description:

This “Juvenile Justice” course examines topics in the Jurisprudence of Juvenile Justice and Juvenile Delinquency. Our reading includes case law, articles, and influential writings that can shed light on this elusive topic. Your Professor for this class welcomes your insight and will conduct the course in a Seminar format.

Course Objectives- upon completion of the course students will be able:

1. To communicate about the various topics that shape the Jurisprudence of Juvenile Justice and Juvenile Delinquency;
2. Think and write critically about these topics;
3. Think critically about their own ideologies that they bring in to our study;
4. Appreciate and respect the views of their classmates;
5. Through group inquiry participate in a dialogue that will be informative;
6. Work on reaching a level of logical precision in expressing and writing their ideas.

Texas Domain III Competency 19: The educator understands and applies critical thinking knowledge and skills to plan, organize/implement instruction, and assess learning.

Texas Domain III Competency 23: The educator understands and applies knowledge of core concepts including ways that individuals and groups achieve their goals through distinct and unique systems and approaches for thought.

Americans with Disability Act Statement:

In order to receive accommodations on exams or assignments, proper documentation must first be provided to the Office of Counseling and Accessibility Services. Students must contact Mary Schwarze-Grisham, LPC-S, SRSU's Accessibility Services Coordinator at 432-837-8203 (please leave a message and she'll get back to you as soon as she can during working hours), or email mary.schwarze-grisham@sulross.edu.

Attendance and Plagiarism Policies:

Each class meeting informs subsequent class meetings. Participation and regular class attendance is the minimal expectation of each student. Please communicate to inform me that you will miss class.

Sul Ross State University has a zero-tolerance policy on cheating, plagiarism, or collusion. Procedures for dealing with these acts are addressed in the Scholastic Dishonesty Policy. Plagiarism is a serious matter; thus, if anyone needs “clarification” please let me know.

Libraries:

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library in Alpine offers free resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library's website: library@sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your LoboID and password. Librarians are a resource for your coursework and can be reached in person, by email (srsulibrary@sulross.edu), or phone (432-837- 8123).

The Southwest Texas Junior College (SWTJC) Libraries at Uvalde, Del Rio, and Eagle Pass offer additional access to library spaces and resources. Del Rio, Eagle Pass, and Uvalde students may also use online resources available through SWTJC website: library.swtjc.edu. The SWTJC Libraries serve as pick-up locations for InterLibrary Loan (ILL) and Document Delivery from the Alpine campus.

Our duty to each other:

The atmosphere in our classroom requires that we are each accountable for what we say and what we do. Please conduct yourself in a manner that demonstrates your observance of the Golden Rule. The University should be a place where we exchange ideas and points of view on a variety of issues. We should all feel comfortable and safe by trusting our atmosphere in order to express our point of view with clarity, precision, and measured language. *With the advent of email, the communication between teacher and student is better served. I will respond to your communication(s); I expect for you to respond to mine.

No Electronic Devices:

Our classroom will resemble a Seminar. Our subject matter is complicated, our reading is dense, our discussions will be lively (and stimulating); thus, it is necessary to omit the trappings (and distractions) of electronic devices during our meetings.

There is no required textbook for this course (mostly all readings are part of the public domain; you will be furnished with some readings that are not easy to locate online).

Grading

Each student will take 2 exams: Midterm and a Final Exam.

Midterm Exam: 35% of your grade (7th of October 2022);

Final Exam: 35 % of your grade (2nd of December 2022);

Class Participation: 15% of your grade;

Criminal Justice Journal (due each Friday): 15% of your grade.

Grading system: A: 90-100; B: 80-89; C: 70-79; D: 60-69; F: 59 and below.

Juvenile Justice requires an examination of “totality of circumstances” (this is a phrase that is cultivated by lawyers and judges. Juvenile Justice is one of the branches of Jurisprudence that requires depth of knowledge and “patience” because the nature of the age group is incredibly complicated. Your critical thinking and critical writing skills will develop dramatically as a result of invoking a heightened thought-process.
