Essentials of Community Corrections

Author: Robert D. Hanser

ISBN-13: 978-1506359762

Course Description

This class is designed to familiarize students with a concise and practical perspective on Community Corrections while also focusing on successful offender reentry, through strong community partnerships.

STUDENTS LEARNING OUTCOMES

SLO 1 Student will be able to demonstrate knowledge of specific areas of the U.S. Constitution as it relates to specific legal liabilities.

SLO 2 Student will be able to demonstrate knowledge of criminological theories and apply those theories to an analysis of offender reentry opportunities.

SLO 3 Student will be able to identify and discuss the various philosophical underpinnings associated with sentencing and the administration of offender supervision within the community.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This course is designed to provide knowledge about various topics related to critical issues in criminal justice. Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

LO1- Explore the various critical issues that have created a negative stigma for offender reentry.

LO2- Learn and understand the different issues associated with offender reentry.

LO3- Learn, examine, and discuss the different issues that have happened and can happen along with the various consequences that can come from being institutionalized.

LO4- Learn and understand the multiple issues that are possible in risk management.

LO5- Understand and compare arguments about the causes/contributors of issues pertaining to restorative justice.

LO6- Learn, examine, and evaluate the arguments presented by audiences not limited to victims and or witnesses of community corrections.

MARKETABLE SKILLS

1. This course is designed also to help the students for building various marketable skills to use in their Criminal Justice related professions. Specifically, in this course, the following marketable skills, which are some of the most important skills for such careers, will be emphasized during this course:
2. MS 1-Verbal & Written Communication Skills
3. MS 2- Critical Thinking and Observation
4. MS 3- Multicultural Understanding.
5. MS 4- Accessing Resources with Crime Data and the most current updates of legal codes and procedures.
6. MS 5- Teamwork and Working Collaboratively
7. MS 6- Analyzing the Factors Contributing to Critical Issues in Criminal Justice

This course will be contained within the Blackboard format and will not meet in person during the term. Students are expected to log in regularly to complete assignments. Students should familiarize themselves with all the sections of blackboard available for this course. Assignments and tests will be listed under the appropriate subheading. Students will also need to become familiar with the discussion board for completing some of this work.

Students will be expected to be self-motivated, and work independently. Students will engage in research, reading, and writing. Any computer glitches must be reported promptly, or the student will not receive credit on the affected work.

Technical problems can be reported to me - through e-mail is usually the best idea, and/or to the Help Desk at 432-837-8888 locally, 8888 from on campus or 1-888-837-2882 from out of area. You can also log into the LTAC system and create a ticket by going to <https://techassist.sulross.edu/> If you report an issue through the Help Desk or create a ticket by logging into the system, you should send me an email with a description of your issue and the ticket number so I can help ensure that technical issues are addressed and do not negatively affect your grades. If you do not promptly report your technical problems, you will not get credit for any work affected by the problem.

- Assignments 140 pts (14 assignments, 10 points each)
- Discussion Questions 140 pts (14 threads, 10 points each)
  - Final Exam 100 pts
  - Midterm Exam 100 pts
- Quizzes 100 pts (6 quizzes, 20 points each)

Total 600 pts

Scale: A 600-550 B 549-500 C 499-450 D 349-300 F 299 & below

Quizzes, Tests, Exams

The testing format for this course will consist of multiple choice, true/false and fill in the blank questions. The testing schedule will be posted under the Quiz, Test, Exam section of the course. There will be no make-ups for any assigned testing content. The testing content will each cover the sections that will need to be covered by the testing date. Content within the test may also relate to the questions from the Discussion Board section of the course. Therefore, students are expected to read the responses to the Discussion Questions carefully and to do any research needed to master the information presented.

Assignments

Students will be required to complete assignments as assigned. Assignments will consist of open-ended questions, definitions, out of text learnings and other methods of checking for understanding. Some assignments may require the student do additional research on their behalf to successfully complete the assignment.

Discussion Questions

Each Monday there will be a new discussion question posted on the Discussion Board section of Blackboard. Students are required to post an initial thread by Wednesday, and they will also be expected to respond to the information posted by other students by Friday. Students are expected to contribute in significant ways to the discussion boards, based on the readings, but also on personal experience and knowledge gained through other course work, media reports, etc. This portion of the course is expected to replace the normal dialog that would occur within an in-class course and students will be expected to have a thorough knowledge of the subjects being discussed. This means that students will have to do outside research.

Code of Conduct

Students are expected to behave as professional adults. Students are expected to do their own work on all tests and assignments. Cheating and plagiarism on tests or assignments will result in a grade of "F" on that part of the course, a possible grade of "F" for the entire course, and possible recommendation for suspension from the university.

Plagiarism consists of presenting the work of another as one's own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source) and submitting examinations or other work in whole or in part as one's own when such work has been prepared by another person or copied from another person (see the Student Handbook).

Open discussion of course issues is encouraged, however, abusive, offensive or otherwise inappropriate language will not be tolerated – this includes profanity, racial/ethnic slurs, personal attacks on other members of the course, etc. Part of the learning process is learning to communicate effectively and professionally. A direct quote from a published source may occasionally contain such language, but use of the quote should be limited and explained – why is it necessary to use such quote?

Any assignment containing abusive, offensive, or profane language, or creating an offensive environment in the course will result in a grade of 0 for that assignment.

Academic Integrity

Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: Turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person's work as one's own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation; collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

Classroom Climate of Respect

Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation, and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.

Diversity Statement

I aim to create a learning environment for my students that supports a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, socioeconomic class, age, nationality, etc.). I also understand that the crisis of COVID, economic disparity, and health concerns, or even unexpected life events could impact the conditions necessary for you to succeed. My commitment is to be there for you and help you meet the learning objectives of this course. I do this to demonstrate my commitment to you and to the mission of Sul Ross State University to create an inclusive environment and care for the whole student as part of the Sul Ross Familia. If you feel like your performance in the class is being impacted by your experiences outside of class, please don't hesitate to come and talk with me. I want to be a resource for you.

Distance Education Statement

Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as library resources, online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website. Directions for filing a student complaint are located in the student handbook.

SRSU Library

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library in Alpine offers FREE resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library's website, library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your LobID and password.
