Class Meeting Location & Time: Virtual - Thursdays 6:00pm-8:45pm

EDSR 3328 Foundations of Bilingual Education (3-0). A survey of the research, philosophy and the legal requirements of bilingual education. The process of second language development. Also, a review and analysis of the differences of various bilingual programs. Must be admitted to the Teacher Education Program.

This is a 16-week course that will be delivered synchronously via Blackboard Collaborate. Remote learning is a different kind of experience from the traditional face-to-face course. Online learning will encompass weekly video class meetings that are necessary for content coverage. Candidates should plan to attend all synchronous video class discussions. Attendance and participation is expected in this class. September 7, 2022 is the last day to drop the course without an academic record.

Instructional Goals:

- A review of the methods and materials used in teaching the bilingual child.
- An overview of federal policy for Bilingual Education.
- Students will observe and identify the range of individual developmental differences that characterizes bilingual students.
- Students will identify instructional strategies to analyze children's strengths and needs for planning instruction.
- Students will identify and select pertinent material and research including technological resources to enhance student learning engagement in the planning process.
- Obtain the knowledge to create authentic and purposeful learning activities and experiences in both the first and second language that promotes the students' cognitive academic language proficiency (CALP) and concepts and skills as defined by the TEKS.
- Attention to the principles of time and treatment, instructional planning, and classroom management strategies.
- To reflect upon the processes of teaching, and why teachers teach.
- The psychology of first and second language acquisition.
- Prepare for the TEXES (Texas Exam for Educator Standards) Bilingual COMPETENCIES

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Participation: Regular attendance and participation are expected. Participation in class discussions are expected. More than two (2) absences will result in being dropped from the course, or the lowering of the final grade. If a true emergency arises please contact me before meeting for class. Daily attendance will be taken.

Participation implies active contribution which is essential for optimal learning. Your ability to effectively participate in class will be significantly enhanced by appropriate preparation, which will include reading and reflecting on assigned chapters, articles, or other assigned materials. Participation is measured by your active contribution in class discussions.
