All candidates for the master's degree must pass a comprehensive examination or portfolio defense, either oral or written or both as specified by the major department. This examination may be scheduled through the major advisor after the student has completed at least twenty-four (24) semester hours of graduate credit.

Students failing the comprehensive examination will be given an opportunity to retake the examination and meet other stipulations established by the committee or department. A third and final attempt will be allowed with the approval of the Dean of the College. The results of each attempted examination must be filed in the Dean of the College's Office. All students must be enrolled in each term that the comprehensive exam is attempted and must be enrolled in the term they graduate.

Before a candidate can be cleared for graduation, a passing grade on the examination must be filed in the Dean of the College's Office at least ten days before the commencement at which the degree is to be conferred.

Graduating students must be enrolled at Sul Ross State University in the term in which they apply for graduation. Students not enrolled at SRSU during the semester they plan to graduate who are completing coursework at another institution will not be cleared to graduate.
