COURSE DESCRIPTION

A course to examine the areas of sport and recreation across and within international settings to broaden the students experience and scope of practice. The course offerings include a study abroad trip to Ireland.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Recognize the major aspects of the “Irish Recreation Experience” and the historical, political, economic and social significance of sports and leisure in Ireland
2. Analyze the degree of interrelatedness and multicultural crossover between the cultures of Ireland and America, in sports and leisure pursuits
3. Experience workshops in sports and leisure theory and management
4. Participate in Irish sports (Gaelic football and hurling, surfing)
5. Communicate with a diverse group, bridging geographic, ideological and cultural differences

EXPECTATION OF STUDENTS

Students are responsible for keeping up with the course requirements and are expected to read the assigned chapters and/or other posted readings prior to class in order to contribute to online discussion. Handouts distributed through Blackboard should be kept in a notebook in order to be referred to as necessary.

Being a successful student requires a balance in life. If you are dealing with an issue that affects your academic performance, please contact me so that we can figure out what you need to be successful in this class.

IMPORTANT: Please note that online courses require individual students' self-discipline to a significant degree. In many ways, taking online courses are more challenging than taking in-class courses! You need to be organized, motivated, and ready to self-teach and work. Only those who can manage these can be successful in this course.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY OR MISCONDUCT

Sul Ross State University is committed to the highest standards of integrity and ethical conduct. Participating in behavior that violates academic integrity (plagiarism, etc.) will result in disciplinary action and may include: receiving a failing grade for the assignment, failing the course, and suspension and/or dismissal from the University.

DROP POLICY

Students are responsible to register and withdrawal from courses themselves, either through Banner (LoboOnline) or by contacting the University Registrar by published deadlines. For information regarding enrollment/registration changes please review the website at: <http://www.sulross.edu/page/967/schedule-changes-withdrawals>

LATE WORK POLICY

All coursework must be submitted by the provided due dates presented in Blackboard or third party software. Late work will incur 5% deduction per day late; up to 30% maximum deduction. If you have not turned in an assignment within 7 days of the due date, you must email the professor for grading consideration.

ALL COURSE REQUIREMENTS DEADLINE

Due to the time requirement for grading purposes, all course requirements must be submitted/completed by the 'Course Requirements Deadline' of Wednesday in Week 15 at 11:59pm to be counted for credit towards the final letter grade in this course. There will be no exceptions to this policy. Late deductions will apply as per above policy.

METHODS OF EVALUATION

(SEE BELOW 'COURSE REQUIREMENTS' FOR MORE DETAILS)

Note: Satisfactory progress in the HHP program means a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in all core classes (e.g. everything leading up to the final practicum course). In most cases, this means a 'B' or better in each class is considered satisfactory progress.
