Course Description

A general survey of various styles of music of the Americas, including but not limited to jazz, folk, rock, and contemporary music. This course fills a core curriculum requirement in the category of Language, Philosophy, and Culture.

Note: The following core curriculum objectives will be evaluated this semester:

Personal Responsibility

Students will develop principles of personal responsibility for living in a diverse world; to include intercultural competency, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national and global communities.

Social Responsibility

Students will develop principles of social responsibility for living in a diverse world, to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Objectives (SLOs)

No prior musical training is required for this course.

After completing this course students should be able to:

- 1) use basic terminology to describe musical elements including pitch, rhythm, melody, harmony, tempo, dynamics, timbre, texture, and form. (Knowledge)
- 2) demonstrate a broad knowledge of the creative work of the composers, performers, and teachers, as well as the music industry, of the areas and musical genres discussed. (Skills)
- 3) implement critical thinking skills in order to identify and discuss the roots of current popular music, world music, and trends. (Attitudes or Dispositions)
- 4) critique live musical performances using appropriate terminology to describe the performance, repertoire, and characteristics of the performer. (Attitudes or Dispositions)

Major Assignments with Matched SLOs

- Response assignments and quizzes will be given throughout the semester in order to assess students' understanding of the material and reflect upon music listened to for assignments. These include, but are not limited to, reflection papers on assigned listening and quizzes on terms and reading from the textbook. (1,2,3)
- One concert report will be completed during the semester. Students will be required to watch a live performance on the SRSU campus OR an online performance approved by the instructor and will write a 500-750-word report about the concert. (3,4)
- One project will be assigned in which the students construct a set of lyrics that address a current political topic of choice and then will find an existing musical piece that parallels their choice. (1,2,3)

• The final video presentation will be on a composer, performer, composition, or genre of music (hip-hop, jazz, R&B, etc.) chosen by the student. Each student will present information about their topic with appropriate research and citations in a format of their choice, record their presentation, and submit it to the instructor. (PowerPoint, lecture, etc.) (1,2,3)

Required Materials

- Blackboard access and internet access (these services provided on campus)
- Textbook with playlist access
- All work should be typed, either using a word processing program, or better still, a cloud-based web application such as Blackboard, Google Docs, Office 365, etc.

Class Attendance and Participation

Actively working in the course and completing assignments constitutes class participation, as does corresponding with the instructor via e-mail if you have difficulty with an assignment or technical problems.

If you are not actively participating and have not reached out to the instructor, you may be dropped from the course pending the University's Instructor Initiated Drop policy.

Late work will not be accepted unless accompanied by a written excuse such as a doctor's note, military orders, or official University excuse. Unless an emergency, these should be discussed with the instructor before the due date passes. Due to the work-at-your-own-pace nature of this course, you should not need an extension on any work due except for extreme cases, to be discussed with the instructor on a case-by-case basis.

Grading Procedures

Your final grade will be determined by the following formula:

1. Listening Response Assignments/Quizzes – 30%

- 2. Weekly Assignments 30%
- 3. Final Video Presentation 15%
- 4. Concert Report 15%
- 5. Lyrics Project—10%

Grading Scale

A=90-100 B=80-89 C=70-79 D=60-69 F=below 60

The instructor will provide detailed information and due dates for assignments, lyrics project, concert report, and the final presentation on a separate handout.

Professional Communication Policy

- All communication with me should be done primarily through email, phone, or virtual meetings.
- You are expected to check your email and the course Blackboard page on a regular basis.

SRSU Library Services

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library offers FREE resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library's website, library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your LobolD and password.
