TEXTBOOKS AND EXAMS:

The textbook needed for this course is Triumphs and Tragedy: A History of the Mexican People (isbn 0-393-31066-3) by Ramon Eduardo Ruiz. Additional readings will be made available by the professor and will be indicated in the assignments section. STUDENTS MUST READ THE TEXTBOOK AND ASSIGNED READINGS CAREFULLY IN ORDER TO OBTAIN AN ADEQUATE GRADE.

Students will prove their mastery of the material learned in the textbook by completing five examinations during the semester. These examinations will consist of multiple choice questions and will total one hundred points per test. The examinations will be timed, with fifty minutes given for the completion of every exam. Students must complete these examinations during the times given, and a make-up exam will require an extremely extraordinary reason. The examinations will be posted on blackboard sometime in the morning will stay posted until 8:00 p.m. These tests will count for 500 points of the final grade.

STUDENTS WILL BE ALLOWED TO TAKE EACH EXAM TWICE, AND BLACKBOARD WILL RECORD THE HIGHEST GRADE OF THE TWO ATTEMPTS.

Students will also be required to complete study guides provided by professor. The terms, names, and concepts included in those study guides must be answered to the fullest extent possible from the information in the textbook. The completed study guides must be turned in via regular email. The completed study guides will be worth 20 points each for a total of 100 points. Please refer to the date schedule below for due dates on completed study guides and exam dates. Exams will be posted on the morning of the due date and will stay posted all day long. Final grades will depend upon the total points earned by students during the semester:

Therefore, the exams and study guides will amount to 600 points and the grade of the student will be based upon the percentage they earn as explained below.

A's---600*.90=540+ B's----600*.80=480+ C's---600*.70=420+ D's---600*.6=360+
