Required Textbook and other Course Material

There is NO required textbook for this course. Articles, essays, book chapters, and other required material will be posted on Blackboard each week. You also need to have these minimum technology items:

- 🖥️ A computer to access the course's online content (of go to the library!)
- 🖨️ Word processing software, such as Microsoft Word.

Grading

Your Final Grade will be comprised of:

1. Participation in Online course or Face-to-Face Discussion Forums (30%).
2. Essays (30%).
3. Quizzes (15%).
4. Final Exam (25%).

Major Assignments and Exams

Essays You will be assigned four 2-page essays during the semester. Each time, you will have a choice between writing a research-based essay or a thesis-driven (argumentative) essay. Details about formatting will be provided in the assignment instructions. Your grade will be based on critical thinking and comprehension of course material as well as clarity and writing mechanics.

Final Exam The final is not cumulative. The exam will include multiple choice, short identification, and essay questions.

Quizzes You will have multiple-choice and fill-in the blank quizzes throughout the semester.

Other Weekly Assignments You will have a variety of other weekly assignments. Many of them are writing based, but some involve other methods (visual compositions, use of digital tools, etc.). These are designed to create a dynamic learning space where your own ideas contribute to the course. Identity and cultural formation are not static objects of study but are instead ever changing, complex systems of meaning. In this sense, your ideas are as important as the instructor's. Please be engaged member of the classroom as you discuss the material.

Academic Integrity:

Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: Turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person's work as one's own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation; collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

Classroom Climate of Respect

Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation, and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose, and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another based on race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still, we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.

Diversity Statement

"I aim to create a learning environment for my students that supports a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, socioeconomic class, age, nationality, etc.). I also understand that the crisis of COVID, economic disparity, and health concerns, or even unexpected life events could impact the conditions necessary for you to succeed. My commitment is to be there for you and help you meet the learning objectives of this course. I do this to demonstrate my commitment to you and to the mission of Sul Ross State University to create an inclusive environment and care for the whole student as part of the Sul Ross Familia. If you feel like your performance in the class is being impacted by your experiences outside of class, please don't hesitate to come and talk with me. I want to be a resource for you."
