Put your name and the assignment number in the document's file name. All assignments must be submitted in "Microsoft Word."

Assignments: A fundamental concept of this course is student-initiated work. There is no textbook on the market that addresses the subjects covered in this course in a significant and responsible manner. Therefore, resources from education websites and interviewing of in-field experts are the tools we will use to master this massive and difficult subject. We will examine in-depth six special populations and programs: 1) Special Education, 2) Bilingual/ELL, 3) Gifted and Talented, 4) Career and Technology, 5) Homeless, and 6) Migrant.

Each student will develop a paper and a power point presentation describing each of the 6 programs mentioned above. Each will be worth 10 points each, 7 for the paper and 3 for the power point, and will be due according to the schedule of activities below. There will be no discussions, but each student will submit a brief power point outlining each of the six program papers he/she completes and will submit them by the date listed as the due date for the paper in the discussion forum. Additionally, each student individually will complete a comprehensive paper of not less than 8 pages or more than 12 pages worth 15 points, covering one of the 6 programs listed above. Each student must submit his/her topic selection to the professor via the submission slot found on Blackboard no later than June 8 and no more than 2 students may choose to work with any one topic (first come/first served). This paper must be fully documented according to APA 6th edition standards and will be due no later than the date listed in the Schedule of Activities listed below. Each student individually will complete the final exam and submit it online no later than the date listed in the Schedule of Activities listed below. The final exam will be worth 25 points.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES:

June 4: Paper on Special Education is due along with the power point. Additionally, students must submit and have approved their topic selection for the term paper.

June 7: Paper on Bilingual/ESL is due along with your power point.

June 11: Paper on GT is due along with the power point.

June 16: Paper on CTE (Career and Technical Education) is due along with the power point.

June 22: Paper on Homeless is due along with the power point.

July 5: Final Exam Due

NOTE: Each paper will have a three slide (or more) power point attached to it and submitted on the due date as noted above to the discussion board in Blackboard.

Grading: Grades are based on a point system. There are 100 points available. Scores of:

90 – 100 equates to an A,

80 –89 equates to a B

70 – 79 equates to a C

69 or less will receive an F.

Advice: Successful completion of a Web-delivered course requires dedication and constant effort. Do not fall behind in your work! Begin your research paper as soon as possible. Submit professional quality work. Have someone proofread your submittals and always use the grammar and spell check functions on your computer before submission.

Grading Policy:

1. No Assignment will be accepted after its due date without prior instructor consent.
2. Late assignments will lose 20% of possible points for each day it is late.
3. As papers should be typewritten according to the American Psychological Association (APA) manual. Papers with APA errors will receive a reduction in points or no credit.
4. Extra credit points are not available.

7. There are no optional assignments in this course. All assignments must be completed in order to pass this class.
8. Students who fail to participate in Discussion Power Point postings or complete any assignment may not pass this course.

Attendance:

Conduct:

Academic honesty is expected in all work. Violations will result in course failure. Use of good "Netiquette" is essential in an online environment. Please observe the following rules of common courtesy:

- a) Check the course website frequently and respond appropriately and on subject.
- b) Focus on one subject per message and use pertinent subject titles
- c) Capitalize words only to highlight an important point or for titles. Capitalizing otherwise is generally interpreted as SHOUTING!
- d) Be professional and careful with your online interaction. Remember that you should be comfortable with your statements if they were published on the front page of the local newspaper.
- e) Cite all quotes, references and sources.
- f) Never forward someone else's messages without their permission, this is considered to be extremely rude.
- g) Use humor with care. The absence of face-to-face cues and body language can lead to misunderstandings. Feel free to use emoticons such as : ) or ; ) to communicate that you are being humorous.

- h) All discussion postings should be of top quality, on time, and rich in text. This means no comments such as “at a boy”, “you go girl”, “I agree with that”, “couldn’t have said it better myself”, etc. will be considered master degree quality responses. Make sure to take the time to add richness to the discussion and make connections to the many theories in instructional leadership that will be covered in this course. Remember, postings are tracked for quantity, quality, and punctuality of deadlines set forth.
(The above “netiquette guidelines were adapted from Rinaldi, A. (1994) The Net User Guidelines and Netiquette, Florida Atlantic University, available from Netcom).
