Course

Requirements:

Academic Honesty - Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: Turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person’s work as one’s own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation; collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

A. D. A. Statement: Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. It is the students responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services. Students seeking accessibility services must contact:

Mary Schwartze-Grisham, M.Ed.

Counseling and Accessibility Services,

Ferguson Hall 112

Mailing Address: P. O. Box C-171; Alpine, TX 79832

Phone: (432) 837-8203

E-mail: mschwartz@sulross.edu

If you have an accessibility letter from the C. A. S it is your responsibility to ensure that the instructor has received a copy of it so your specific accommodations can be met.

Appealing the Final Grade: If students wish to appeal their grade, this discussion should begin with the instructor and proceed according to university policies and procedures. For university policies on appealing a grade, please see the Student Handbook for the procedures in place.

Attendance - It is highly recommended you attend class. Per SRSU requirements attendance is taken at the beginning of each class.

Classroom Climate of Respect: Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation, and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.

Cell Phone Policy: Turn all electronic devices to silent and put them away. Use of electronic devices during the class is strictly prohibited, and users electronic devices may be asked to leave the class. YES, THIS REFERS TO TRYING TO HIDE & USE YOUR CELL PHONE UNDER THE DESK.

Contacting the Instructor: My office telephone number and e-mail are included for emergencies. E-mail is the preferred method of communication. Please use the following format in your subject line for any e-mail communications: YOUR NAME: HIST 2301-Subject of E-mail.

Late Assignments: Assignments turned in late will lose 10% off their maximum grade each day the assignment is late. After 4 days you will receive a grade of “F”.

Make Up Exam Policy: Make up exams will only be given because of documented emergency situations such as severe/extreme medical conditions for yourself or a dependent, or in the case of a death in the immediate family. Students who have this type of problem must either contact the instructor by e-mail or phone prior to the date of the exam OR bring in a validated excuse upon their first day back in the course.

On Writing Well: The members of the history faculty believe that it is important that students be encouraged to write well in classes other than English. To that end, each examination will contain essay questions; while major assignments incorporating writing, such as readings syntheses, will be required. Points may be deducted from your grade for the overall quality of the essay, reflection or paper, including spelling and grammatical errors. (HINT: Use Spelling & Grammar Check).

Writing Tutoring: Students needing assistance with writing are urged to use the services of the Writing Lab, part of the Tutoring and Learning Centre, located in the Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library first floor. Please note that while the writing tutors can help you with grammar, structure, formatting and citations they will not write assignments for you nor are they editors.

Student
Responsibilities:

You are responsible for attending all lectures, taking notes and completing the readings.
You are responsible for getting notes from a missed class from a classmate.
You are responsible for turning in assignments on time.
You are responsible for being in class to take quizzes and exams
You are responsible for verifying your enrollment in or withdrawal from the course. If you quit the class, but your name still appears on the Banner grade sheet at the end of the semester you will receive an “F” for the course.

Instructor
Responsibilities:

Mr. Marsh will know the course content; explain relevant concepts and principles; facilitate class participation; hold office hours; treat students fairly and with respect; and create a positive learning environment.
Mr. Marsh will field any question on the course content
Mr. Marsh will return assignments in a reasonable amount of time.
Mr. Marsh will hold office hours and answer student e-mails on the course.

Lesson Structure:

Units: There will be four units for the class- Ancient, Classical, Late Antique, Mediaeval/Byzantine. Within each unit will be individual lessons with lectures, readings, and assignments. The conclusion of each unit will be a unit examination over the period covered.

Lectures: With each lesson there will be a lecture, introducing the main themes and topics of that lesson. Please note the bullet points contained on the lecture slides are an outline for you to use when taking notes. They are not a transcription of lecture itself.

Readings: Each lesson will consist of a required reading from the primary textbook, a supplementary chapter or article, or both depending on the lesson. While you are required to purchase the primary textbook, supplemental readings will be posted to Blackboard.

Required Textbooks:

The New Penguin Atlas of Ancient History. Colin McEvedy. London: Penguin Books, 2002.

The New Penguin Atlas of Medieval History. Colin McEvedy. London: Penguin Books, 1992.

In addition to the Sul Ross Bookstore, Amazon.com, and other fine merchants, both required books are available on the Internet Archive at archive.org for no charge. Any supplemental readings will be provided via Blackboard.

Assignments: With each lesson will be an assignment or assignments that you are asked to complete. See below for a full listing of the different assignments we will be completing in this course.

Course Assignments:

Reading Syntheses: History is a discipline based around written documents. Because of this reading the text is a critical part of understanding the material and successfully completing the course. With each lesson you will write a one page synthesis based on the textbook, and/or supplementary readings for that lesson. (See Appendix I for Complete Details)

Geography Assignments: Knowledge of geography is a key part of understanding historical events. Each student will complete 5 assignments on the political & physical geography of the Ancient World to be turned in via Blackboard. (See Appendix II for details.)

Thematic Quizzes: Our 16 lessons will be structured around 4 main themes: the Ancient World, the Classical World, the Late Antique World, and the Mediaeval/Byzantine World. At the end of each thematic section you will complete a short quiz on that theme. Quizzes will be based on lectures and readings from each lesson, and will consist of a combination of multiple choice, true/false, geographic, and short answer questions. Questions are designed to test your knowledge and comprehension of the material covered in the lessons.

Attendance & Participation: You are expected to attend, pay attention and actively participate in the course. This means completing the assigned readings, assignments, asking questions and participating in discussions.

Extra Credit: Book Review: Students may complete an optional book review for a total of 100 points, chosen from one of the books listed in Appendix III. Please see Appendix IV for full instructions on how to construct and submit an extra credit Book Review. Limit of one per student. Maximum of 100 points. Other extra credit opportunities during the semester will be noted by the instructor.

Appendix I: Reading Syntheses

I: Learning Objective

The reading synthesis is designed to build knowledge and skills related to the study of history including but not limited to: reading comprehension, interpretation and synthesis, critical thinking, time management and writing in standard English.

II. Directions

Each week a chapter or portions of multiple chapters will be assigned for students to read. After reading the assigned pages write a one-page synthesis of the topics and information found in the textbook readings.

Syntheses are not designed to be exhaustive, but to give a brief overview of what is being covered. Look at what the main ideas and topics are in the chapter when beginning to outline your summary.

III. Format

Complete your assignments in Microsoft Word. All pages to be 1.5 spaced, using 12pt Times New Roman or Cambria font.

- Your Name, Date, HIST 2301 and the assignment week need to be in the upper right-hand corner of the page.
- Original title for the summary on next line, centred
- Body of the summary
- NO QUOTES FROM THE TEXTBOOK OR READINGS IN THE SUMMARY

IV. Reading Syntheses Due Dates

- I – 5 June
- II – 12 June
- III – 19 June
- IV – 26 June
- V – 3 July

Appendix II: Geography Assignments

I: Learning Objective

The geography assignments are designed to build knowledge and skills related to the study of history including but not limited to: Near Eastern, India or China physical & political geography, research skills, critical thinking, time management and writing in standard English.

II. Directions

Each week you will be assigned a physical or political geography that you will be asked research five basic questions on. The topics and questions for each week will be posted to Blackboard under assignments or to announcements. After completing the assignment you will need to save it as a MS Word document and turn in via Blackboard.

III. Format

Assignments need to be completed in Microsoft Word.

- Times New Roman or Cambria 12 point font only.
- Your Name, Date, HIST 3300-W01 and the assignment week need to be in the upper right-hand corner of the page.
- For full credit on the assignment you will need to complete the following:
 - A. Find a picture of the assigned geographic feature (What it looks like on a map).
 - B. Answer Question II
 - C. Answer Question III
 - D. Answer Question IV
 - E. Answer Question V

Appendix IV: Extra Credit Critical Book Review

I: Learning Objective

The critical book review is designed to build knowledge and skills related to the study of history including but not limited to: reading comprehension, historical interpretation and synthesis, factual analysis, critical thinking, time management and writing in standard English.

II. Directions

- A) Each student has the option to write a critical book review, for extra credit, over a civilisation existing in the time period covered by our class, or on a biography of an important historical personage in the ancient or mediaeval period. Students may choose their book to review from the list of books in Appendix III. Books titles must be chosen and turned into the instructor for approval by the assigned dates in the class schedule. Each book review will be 4-5 pages in length.
- B) There is no one correct way to write a book review. However, as you read, it is suggested you look for some or all of the following topics.¹
- a) What historical subject is the author writing about and what field does the book fit into?
 - b) What is the main thesis (central argument) of the book?
 - c) How does the author structure the book? Is the presentation of the book clear, orderly and logical?
 - d) What primary sources does the author use?
 - e) Does the author appear to have done comprehensive research for the book?
 - f) What supplemental features such as maps, charts, illustrations and/or bibliography does the book have? How well do they help you understand the book?
 - g) How well does the author write and is the writing easily understandable?
 - h) Are there any factual errors that jump out? People or events that the author has overlooked?
 - i) Why did the author write the book and did it accomplish its purpose?
 - j) What is your reaction to the book - was it enjoyable to read, did the author convince you of their thesis, what new information did you learn while reading the book?
 - k) Would you recommend this book and to what audience?
 - l) Do you have any additional comments?
- C) Review must be written in your own words. [DO NOT PLAGIARIZE] Be sure to proofread the final copy prior to submitting. Reviews will be turned in through Safe Assign.

III. Format

Book reviews will need to have two columns to a page, be double-spaced and use 12pt Times New Roman or Cambria font. Use footnotes to cite any outside books referenced in the review.

A book review is in its essence a short essay. As such you need to have this essay arranged in a clear and logical order. How you have the review arranged is up to you, however, one option is listed below. The instructor will also post sample reviews on Blackboard for you to look at for ideas.²

- a) Short description of the subject, scope and the purpose of the book
- b) How does the author have the book structured?
- c) Outline the main thesis (central argument) of the book and any biases of the author.
- d) Evaluation of each chapters information and arguments.
- e) Important points brought up by the author in each chapter.
- f) Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the book.
- g) How well do the supplementary materials support the book.
- h) What is your overall assessment and recommendation for this book
