Class Organization:

The SRSU catalog states "The instructor may, at his discretion, drop a student from a course when the student has a total of nine absences. An absence is defined as non-attendance in fifty minutes of class. Non-attendance in a one and one-half hour class will constitute one and one-half absences." There will be group discussions and assignments in class.

Distance Education Non-Participation Statement:

Policies in effect for on-campus, traditional classroom instruction courses also apply to students enrolled in distance education courses, including Web-based and ITV courses. The University allows a maximum of 20% absences in a course before an instructor may drop a student for excessive absences. In Web courses, this policy is interpreted as not participating for more than three weeks in a long semester, 1 week in a summer session, or three days in the midwinter session. Any student dropped for non-participation will receive an "F" in the course dropped. Inactivity may include the following:

- Not logging on to the course
- Not submitting assignments
- Not participating in activities
- Not communicating with the instructor by phone or email
- Not following the instructors' participation guidelines in the syllabus.

Cheating on any exam or assignment will result in an F for that material and possible expulsion from the class with a grade of F.

Missed exam policy: No make-up exams will be provided for an unexcused missed exam. If you miss an exam without an excused absence, you will receive a score of 0 for that exam. Makeup exams will be available for authorized absences but must be completed within one week of the original exam date.

If you miss a lecture, you may obtain notes from a willing classmate. Handouts, and assignments may be obtained from me or on Blackboard
