Assignments and Grades

Assignment descriptions are found in the Educational Leadership Practicum Handbook which is incorporated into this Syllabus. Students should read the Handbook carefully.

Grading Policy

Students must complete all Practicum required hours, meetings, and paperwork.

1. No late assignment will be accepted after its due date without prior instructor consent. After 11:59 pm on the date for any assignment due is considered late. If submission is not included by due date, the instructor will assign a grade of "0". Student must contact instructor to submit the late assignment. 10 points will be deducted from the grade for each day late.
2. All citations should be formatted using the American Psychological Association (APA) manual. Papers with APA citation errors will receive a reduction in points or no credit.
3. Extra credit points are not available.
4. There are no I's (incompletes) for this class unless there are unusual circumstances. No incompletes will be given without the approval of the field supervisor and program coordinator.
5. There are no optional assignments in this course. All assignments must be completed in order to pass this class. Even if an assignment is so late that it will receive a "0", the student must turn in the assignment to pass the course (regardless of number of points accrued in the course.)
6. Students who fail to participate in Discussion Board or complete any assignment may not pass this course.

Grading Scale

100-90% equate to an A
89-80% equate to a B
79-70% equate to a C
69-60% equate to a D

Syllabus | ED7100 Practicum I Fall 1st 8-Weeks

59-50% or less receive an F

“Cs” are not accepted in this program. Students scoring below a “B” in this course will be required to repeat the course to remain in the Educational Leadership Program. Changing the rotation by repeating this course will likely delay completion of the program as the program is sequential and the rotation must be followed.

Student and Instructor Expectations for Online Course

This class is taught online. Students will need an active Sul Ross account to access the course website through Blackboard. This site will have announcements, calendar, and learning modules, among other things. Students must have a microphone and camera.

Student Expectations of Instructor:

- Instructor will provide weekly communication with the class through announcements (video and text), email notifications, virtual office hours, and weekly Zoom group chats.
- Instructor will provide weekly email responses within 24-hours of receipt during the hours of 9:00AM-4:00PM, Monday-Friday (CST).
- Instructor will provide grades to assignments and projects within two weeks of the submissions date.
- Instructor will provide feedback to journals and discussion boards as needed, on a weekly basis.
- Instructor will provide clear and concise instructions on how to complete the online requirements.
- Instructor will provide a range of opportunities to engage in the course content in a meaningful way.

Instructor Expectations of Students:

- Successful students will familiarize themselves with the course syllabus, policies, assessments, evaluation, grading criteria, and course design.
- Successful students will complete all coursework on assigned due date.
- Successful students will engage in the course, with their peers, and the instructor and with open communication and active participation.
- Students should be diligent to use both oral and written communication that respects peers and instructor.
- Students should respond to instructor communication requests regarding course progress and for general inquiries in a timely manner.
- Successful students will not plagiarize the work of other or use the work of their peers and claim it as their own.
- Successful students will pre-plan for testing situations and ensure they are able to access the internet to complete the exam during its assigned date and time.
- Students will be proactive and resourceful to problem solve in case of internet or technical issues.

Learning Environment & Grading Policy

Successful completion of an online course requires dedication and constant effort. Do not fall behind in your work! Begin your assignments as soon as possible and get at least one module ahead. This will help you avoid the penalty for late work because there are always unforeseen events that arise. Submit professional quality work. Have someone proofread your submittals and always use the grammar and spell check functions on your computer before submission.

If you are not sure what plagiarism is, please read APA pp. 15-16 and 170, or ask during office hours. But remember, the ultimate responsibility is your own. When in doubt, err on the side of caution.

Syllabus | ED7100 Practicum I Fall 1st 8-Weeks

Internet Web Resources

The sources below are only convenient starting points for your Internet based research. You are expected to locate professional, peer-reviewed publications as reference material on papers submitted in this class. Sul Ross Library recommended databases include the following: Academic Search Premier, Dissertation Abstracts, Education Abstracts, Educator's Reference Desk, eLibrary Curriculum, Emerald Management Xtra, ERIC (from EBSCO), Professional Educational Development Collection, WorldCat, WorldCat Dissertation & Theses.

Format Requirements for Submittals

All submittals must be professional papers. Do not submit your assignments in a "homework" or "school assignment" format. Each submittal should be written as if it were an actual professional paper ready for publication or for transmission to the addressed recipient using APA.

A title page is not necessary. Put a single-spaced heading in the top left corner of the first page only that provides: student name, date, assignment name and number. Also, put your name and the assignment number in the document's file name. (To do this, click on "Save as" and under "File name" put your name and assignment number. (Example: Last name_First name_Assignment name_ED7100_Submission date). Please be advised that if you do not follow the correct naming protocol, your assignment will not be graded.

Academic Integrity

All students are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to

- Turning in work as original that was used in whole or another course and/or professor
- Turning in another's work as one's own
- Copying from professional works or Internet sites without citation

Any of the above offenses will result in a zero for the assignment with not option to redo for credit.

Course Withdrawal

The Last day to drop a course with a 'W' is Friday, September 29, 2023. Drops must be processed and in the University Registrar's office by 4 p.m. A "W" on your transcript has no negative effect on your overall GPA. Please understand that dropping a course means you must re-register and pay tuition to take the course for credit. Additionally, dropping a course may affect your financial aid eligibility or probationary status.

Diversity Statement

My goal is to create a learning environment for my students that supports a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, socioeconomic class, age, nationality, etc.). I also understand that economic disparity, health concerns, or even unexpected life events could impact the conditions necessary for you to succeed. My commitment is to be there for you and help you meet the learning objectives of this course. I do this to demonstrate my commitment to you and to the mission of Sul Ross State University to create an inclusive environment and care for the whole student as part of the Sul Ross Familia. If you feel like your performance in the class is being impacted by your experiences outside of class, please don't hesitate to come and talk with me. I want to be a resource for you.

Students With Special Needs

Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request each semester for each class. Alpine students seeking accessibility/accommodations services must contact Mary Schwartze Grisham, M.Ed., LPC, SRSU's Accessibility Services Coordinator at 432-837-8203 (please leave a message and we'll get back to you as soon as we can during working hours), or email mschwartz@sulross.edu

Our office is located on the first floor of Ferguson Hall (Suite 112), and our mailing address is P.O. Box C-122, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas, 79832.
