Course Description

Spanish 1411 is the first course of a four-semester sequence which implements a proficiency-oriented approach. Proficiency is defined as the ability to understand and convey information and/or feelings in a particular situation for a particular purpose. This approach focuses on the rapid development of listening and reading comprehension skills through constant exposure to high-frequency language in the form of spoken conversation and printed texts.

The material covered by this course is designed to introduce students to the basic elements of the language, and to provide practice in applying it to everyday situations and needs. Emphasis will be placed on learning useful communicative skills, grounded in grammatical knowledge and a wide variety of vocabulary. All four modes of communication – listening, speaking, reading and writing – will be practiced. In addition, readings, music, film/video and online resources will be used to help develop a greater understanding of the many Spanish-speaking cultures. Prerequisite: None.

Course and Learning Activities

1. Attendance (10 %) and Participation (20%) = 30% of your grade is showing up and being prepared to speak in the target language of Spanish.

Failure to attend class is always a missed opportunity to hear and speak Spanish. During the semester, you are allowed a maximum of three unexcused absences. Excused absences are written excuses signed and dated by an athletic coach or a professor, a medical doctor or a counselor.

A crucial component of your daily participation points is your planning to come to class ready to speak for the daily conversation check, which will always comprise the first 5 - 10 minutes of class. The list of questions for the daily conversation check can be found on the content tab on blackboard for each new chapter of Vistas and will be updated with each new chapter. For the first two weeks of the course, the questions will be based on the review of Spanish 1. Names will be called at random. You must be prepared with a full, complete sentence as an answer. Even if the information doesn't pertain to you (I.e. "Do you like watching sports? How did you celebrate your last birthday?" or you don't know the actual answer "How old is _____ (Lady Gaga/Queen Elizabeth of England/Kevin Hart/Marc Anthony)?"... make something up! The point of the daily conversation check is to use grammar and vocabulary in a meaningful way and to practice our spoken communication skills as much as possible. I will not be checking if your answer is "true" or really reflects what you think.

2. Compositions (10%): there will be two (2) composition assignments in class. The compositions have to be in Spanish. Use the grammar structure and vocabulary from the lessons we have covered up to the deadline of the submission. DO NOT TRANSLATE WITH YOUR COMPUTER DEVICE (I will NOT accept any composition that is translated from English). This assignment is meant for you to apply the concepts, grammar, and vocabulary learned in the chapters we have covered. Use simple sentences in the verb tenses that you have already studied. If you are absent the day of the composition, you will need to make an appointment with the professor to do it in her office hours. The topics of the compositions are:

- a. First composition: This composition is divided in two parts: 1) Students will do an extended family tree with the vocabulary of family relations in Spanish (e.g., grandfather, cousin, mother, brother in law, etc.) 2) Students will write a paragraph (minimum of 6 sentences) about their family (e.g., where are they from, what do they like to do, what is your relationship with one or more members of your family, how are they physically, and/or what is their personality like, etc.) You need to use verbs ending -AR, -ER, -IR and the vocabulary of lesson 1, 2, and 3.
 - The composition will be done IN CLASS on Wednesday, October 18th.
- b. Second composition: This composition will be about the "Día de los Muertos en México". You will watch a video and view a PowerPoint presentation in Spanish and you will write a paragraph summarizing the Day of the Dead in Mexico according to the video. The video is all in Spanish, specially designed for Spanish 1 and 2 learners, and it covers grammar structures of the lessons we have covered in class. You will describe and analyze the similarities and differences with the USA Halloween. Explain which festivity you prefer and why.

- The composition will be done IN CLASS on Wednesday, November 1st.

3. Homework (25%): It will normally be assigned from the two kinds of online activities, called ‘Practice’ and ‘WebSAM’ (Student Activities Manual). You will have until two (2) days after each chapter test to complete each unit’s homework. You can see your homework grades online 24/7. Please be aware and prepared that completing the homework will take you on average 5 hours of homework per week. Any homework turned in late will be penalized by 10 % of the score per day. Please plan accordingly to accommodate work and family obligations. If you experience technical difficulties while in the Supersite you will need to contact tech support at 1 (800) 248-2813. Please note that they are not available 24/7.

4. Chapter Tests (20%): Students will have a chapter test per lesson. Each chapter test will be every two and a half weeks:
- Lesson 1 test will be on Wednesday, September 20th
 - Lesson 2 on Monday, October 9th
 - Lesson 3, on Wednesday, October 25th
 - Lesson 4, on Monday, November 6th
 - Lesson 5, on Wednesday, November 27th

The deadlines of the tests CANNOT be changed.

5. Final Oral Exam (15%): At the end of the semester you will have an oral exam. The exam will take place during class time the last week of classes. The exam will consist in answering questions by the professor about everything study in class. The professor will post in blackboard a study guide to prepare you for the oral exam. The oral exam will be on Monday and Wednesday, December 4th and 6th during the class period.
6. Personalized explanatory videos: For some of the more challenging lesson or difficult material, I have created some You-tube video lectures explaining in details one or more grammar aspect of that given lesson. I will also post videos in Spanish of special spoken situations such as “going to a café”; “Introduce each other”; “likes or dislikes”; etc.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is taking responsibility for one’s own work, being individually accountable, and demonstrating intellectual honesty and ethical behavior. Academic integrity is a personal choice to abide by the standards of intellectual honesty and responsibility. Adhering to the standards of academic integrity ensures that grades are earned honestly and gives added value to the entire educational process. Academic integrity is the foundation upon which students, faculty, and staff build their educational and professional careers. Any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, copying from the Internet and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to, submission of the same written assignment for two courses without the prior permission of the instructor) or the attempt to commit such an act is ground for failure in this course and for further academic discipline. By enrolling in this course, you acknowledge having been given an electronic copy of the syllabus and therefore you are responsible for its contents.

SulRoss demands academic integrity from its students. Any form of academic dishonesty, including (but not limited to) plagiarism or cheating is ground for failure in this course and for further academic discipline. Each student must agree, in writing, to uphold this policy.

Class Schedule

THIS CALENDAR IS TENTATIVE. IT HAS TO BE TAKEN AS A GUIDELINE ONLY. IT MAY BE MODIFIED TO FULFILL THE NECESITIES OF THE CLASS

The following objectives from Spanish I will be reviewed during the first two weeks. See chapters 1-6 on the Vistas website during this time as well as throughout the course for reference. You are responsible for knowing these tenses from the first day in Spanish II and the class discussions as well as the quizzes and tests will reflect this assumption.
