ATTENDANCE POLICY

You are responsible for reviewing the university policies on Absences and Class Attendance in the SRSU Student Handbook. This is a web course and it subject to the Sul Ross State University Online Participation Policy. It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board on Blackboard and their Sul Ross email continuously for the duration of the course. In order for you to remain enrolled in EDSR 6320/EDUA6320, you must reply to the Blackboard Discussion Board "Online Participation Policy" forum by the deadline posted on the schedule contained in this syllabus. It is policy at Sul Ross State University that, if a student is enrolled in a web-delivered course and fails to stay active for a period of 3 weeks in a long semester, or for 1 week during a summer session, fails to log in, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor, he/she will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F." You may access the "Online Participation Policy" forum by entering Blackboard, then selecting Discussion Board. Please follow the directions regarding your required response. You will be expected to check your Sul Ross email inbox Discussion Board forum daily for the duration of the semester.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

NOTE: Grades are earned based on the quality of the work completed. Late assignments are not accepted.

Writing Style. Papers must be typed using one-inch margins, 12-point type, and double line spacing, have all pages except the first numbered, and be edited for spelling and grammar. I encourage you to have your work proofread. All written assignments must follow the writing style found in the most current edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA Manual). See American Psychological Association Publication Manual <http://www.apastyle.org/stylehelper/>

Follow the instructions for each paper, and be certain to include citations and a References page following APA style.

NOTE: Your writing reflects your professionalism. Papers with multiple errors will receive a reduction in grade.

Support Groups Experience and Essay

Students are required to attend a meeting of two different support groups, and to write a two-part essay. The first part of the essay will address the first group attended; the second part of the essay will address the second group attended.

(1) One meeting MUST be an open Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) or Narcotics Anonymous (NA) meeting. (If you are currently in recover and are actively attending 12-step meetings, attend a meeting of one of the alternative types of support group listed in Chapter 10 in your textbook.)

(2) The second meeting must be for non-addicted individuals (e.g., Al-Anon, CODA, ACOA).

In the first section of your essay, which should be from 3-5 pages, include the following for the open AA or NA meeting you attended:

- (a) a description of what went on at the meeting;
- (b) your personal cognitive and affective reactions to the people and events;

- (c) an analysis of the advantages and disadvantages of this type of support group in recovery.

In the second section of your essay, which should be from 3-4 pages, include the following for the non-addicted individual support group (Al-Anon, etc.):

- (a) a description of what went on at the meeting;
- (b) your personal cognitive and affective reactions to the people and events;
- (c) an analysis of the advantages and disadvantages of this type of support group.

Create a heading for each group, so that each of the two sections of your paper can be easily seen. Include citations and a Reference page (based on your textbook) following APA style. Include a cover sheet. The cover sheet and the References page are not counted in the minimum length for the essay, which should total a minimum of 8 pages.

NOTE: Remember that these support groups are based on anonymity. DO NOT announce that you are there on a class assignment. DO NOT take notes; you are there to experience the meeting: (Remember that you can always "pass" if people look at you to speak. This is allowed in these meetings, and no one will object.) BE SURE TO READ CHAPTER 10, "12-STEP AND OTHER TYPES OF SUPPORT GROUPS," BEFORE YOU ATTEND ANY MEETINGS!

On the underlined Support Group Experience & Essay link on the Assignments page of Blackboard, you will attach your completed essay. Note the due date on the calendar in this syllabus. No late assignments are accepted.

Abstinence Experience, Reaction Journal, and Analytical Paper

(1) Think about an activity you enjoy and engage in on a daily (or very frequent) basis, and commit to discontinuing that activity for the duration of this course. The first thing that popped into your mind--and that you rejected because it would be too difficult--is the thing you should choose.

(2) Keep a journal of your cognitive and affective reactions to this experience. You will submit this journal on Blackboard three times (see the schedule in the syllabus for the due date for each entry submission). The links to submit each journal entry are found on the Assignments page of Blackboard. Create a Microsoft Word document, and type your journal entry. You will have approximately one week in each journal entry. Label each day and date, such as Monday __/__/__, Tuesday __/__/__, etc., and then write your observations regarding your abstinence experience below the appropriate day. Be honest! Save your document with your name, for example, "Smith-Journal #1." I will supply feedback for your journal submission each time.

(3) Write a paper after the third journal submission; see the syllabus schedule for the due date for this paper. Include an examination of your use of minimization, denial, rationalization, and projection; an analysis of any slips or relapses; and a discussion of how you believe the experience will affect your work with clients. DO NOT simply summarize your journal entries! This paper must include citations from your textbook and a separate References page. Your textbook can be your only reference; in that case you will only have one entry on your References page. Utilize APA style for your citations and Reference entry. The paper, including your cover sheet and separate References page, must be from 6-8 pages in length. Grammar and mechanics count! Be sure to save the paper with your name, for example, "Smith-Analytical Paper." The link to submit your Analytical Paper is found on the Assignments page of Blackboard. Please note that no late assignments are accepted. See the calendar in this syllabus for all deadlines.

Discussion Board

There are 5 separate forums on the Discussion Board. You will be required to make an initial post to each forum, and you will also be expected to respond to one other student in the course on each forum. See the calendar in this syllabus for due dates for each post and response.

Quizzes and Exams

15 Chapter Quizzes, a Midterm Exam, and a Final Exam will be given. All are online and can be found on the Blackboard course site. Note the due dates for each on the calendar in this syllabus. You are responsible for all material in the reading assignments.

SRSU Disability Services: The university is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
