

CJ 5322 - Immigration Issues

Online

Sul Ross State University

Instructor: Jade Pumphrey, PhD
Email: jade.pumphrey@sulross.edu

Course Description:

This course will focus on the history and development of immigration patterns and policies in the United States. Emphasis will be placed on policy issues related to the work of criminal justice practitioners, particularly in the post-9-11 world. Students will also be expected to analyze policy impact on various groups of immigrants.

Course Objectives

Analyze Historical and Contemporary Contexts: Understand the historical immigration patterns and their influence on contemporary views and policies regarding immigration and crime.

Critically Assess Media and Policy: Examine media portrayals and policy implications of the relationship between immigration and crime, developing informed recommendations.

Evaluate Socioeconomic and Legal Factors: Assess how socioeconomic conditions and legal frameworks, such as the "aggravated felony" concept, influence perceptions and treatment of immigrants in the criminal justice system.

Develop and Compare Immigration Policies: Compare macro- and micro-level immigration policies, and create policy briefs addressing future challenges and improvements.

Analyze Policy Impact on Immigrant Groups: Investigate the victimization of immigrants and evaluate the reliability of crime measurement methods, proposing improvements to policy impacts on various immigrant groups.

Technology Requirements

Blackboard is an integral course management tool for this class. Regularly checking Blackboard is mandatory to stay updated on course developments. Throughout the course, several Blackboard features will be utilized, including email, course documents, the discussion board, grade center, external links, and SafeAssign.

This course requires significant online activity. To participate and progress, students must have:

1. Basic Computer Skills

- Sending and retrieving emails
- Opening and attaching files for course assignments
- Locating websites and resources on the internet

2. Internet Connectivity

- Regular access to the internet
- Alternative locations for internet access (e.g., on-campus library, friend's house)

Any additional reading materials, resources, and other information will be posted in Blackboard under the heading "Materials." Students will be notified on how to access this information by the instructor via email and Blackboard announcements.

Assessment Rubric

- Assignments: Graded with a rubric created by the instructor. Students will have access to their grades via the Blackboard grade center, along with feedback on correct responses.
- Discussion Forums: Graded based on a rubric, outlining expectations and point allocation. Feedback will be given alongside the grade after the instructor has evaluated the discussion.

Any student needing special assistance for any class aspect should contact the instructor immediately.

Support for Students with Disabilities

Qualified students with disabilities needing accommodations to ensure full participation in programs, services, and activities at Sul Ross State University should contact the Disability Services Coordinator in Counseling and Prevention Services, Ferguson Hall 112, Box C-117, at (837-8203).

ADA Statement: Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. Students with qualifying disabilities who seek accommodations must initiate a request for a meeting for accessibility services. Contact Rebecca Greathouse Wren, M.Ed., LPC-S, Counseling & Accessibility Services at 432-837-8203 or via email at rebecca.wren@sulross.edu. More information can be found here.

Distance Education Statement

Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, library resources, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Online assignments should be submitted through Blackboard or SRSU email, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and protect their information. Procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Maintaining appropriate equipment and software is required according to the course's needs and requirements, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Attendance

Students are expected to regularly check Blackboard for assignments and pertinent information. The Department of Criminal Justice emphasizes that attendance is a direct predictor of student success. Therefore, CJ faculty will enforce a strict attendance policy. Students must log in for updates, assignments, discussion boards, etc. Failure to log in will result in being dropped from the course for failure to attend.

It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor of any events that would prevent participation. Students may email the instructor. Attendance demonstrates maturity, responsibility, and a serious attitude toward education. Many times, students seek letters of recommendation from their instructors. Prospective employers or graduate programs are all interested in a student's class attendance record.

Academic Dishonesty/Plagiarism

In the learning environment, professional attitude begins in the classroom. Students and faculty will not tolerate or commit any form of academic dishonesty. This includes:

- Copying work from any source
- Assisting or allowing another to commit academic dishonesty
- Sharing answers during a test or in submitting an assignment
- Claiming another's work, data, or creative efforts as your own
- Resubmitting graded assignments for multiple classes
- Providing false information about your academic performance to the college

To avoid plagiarism, do not “copy and paste” into assignments without using proper quotation marks and citing the source in APA format.

Unauthorized Use of AI Tools

The unauthorized use of AI tools is considered academic dishonesty. Examples include:

- Using AI to generate essay content and submitting it as your own work without proper attribution.
- Allowing AI tools to complete assignments or quizzes on your behalf.
- Copying responses generated by AI and presenting them as original ideas or answers.
- Using AI to rephrase or paraphrase your own work or another's work.

Plagiarism Rules and Resources

- Direct Quotes: Should be used very sparingly. Always provide a citation and use quotation marks or indented quotes for direct quotes.

- Paraphrasing/Indirect Quotations: Provide a citation even if you change the sentence structure or words.
- Using Others' Ideas: Cite the source of ideas that are not your own, even if written in your words.
- Collaborative Work: Acknowledge all contributors when submitting collaborative work.

Consequences of Academic Dishonesty/Plagiarism

Violations of academic policy are documented and may result in:

- Reduction in grade on the assignment
- No credit on the assignment
- A failing grade for the course
- Suspension or dismissal from the college

Dropping the Course

Students who wish to drop the class should follow the procedures outlined by Sul Ross State University. Failure to do so may result in an “F” grade. Consult the Sul Ross State University Student Handbook and/or university catalog for details.

Library

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library in Alpine offers FREE resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library's website at library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your LoboID and password.

Librarians are a tremendous resource for your coursework and can be reached in person, by email at srsulibrary@sulross.edu, or by phone at 432-837-8123.

In some cases, you can borrow textbooks from the library. WorldCat allows you to be linked to libraries across America. If you find the book in the system, fill out a request form at the library.

Netiquette

Netiquette guidelines govern online behavior. All participants in the course are expected to contribute to the learning environment in a respectful manner when posting information. Additionally, academic discourse is expected. The link below provides helpful reminders and can be used as a guide to assist students when posting information online in this course.
