RECOMMENDED TEXT:

American Psychological Association. (2020). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association. (vii ed.) Washington, DC: American Psychological Association.

Internet Web Resources: The sources below are only convenient starting points for your Internet-based research. You are expected to locate professional, peer-reviewed publications as reference material on papers submitted in this class.

Sul Ross Library recommended databases include the following: Academic Search Premier, Dissertation Abstracts, Education Abstracts, Educator's Reference Desk, eLibrary Curriculum, Emerald Management Xtra, ERIC (from EBSCO), Professional Educational Development Collection, WorldCat, WorldCat Dissertation & Theses.

Format Requirements for Submittals: All submittals must be professional papers. Do not submit your assignments in a "homework" or "school assignment" format. Each submittal should be written as if it were an actual professional paper ready for publication or for transmission to the addressed recipient using APA.

A title page is not necessary. Put a single-spaced heading in the top left corner of the first page that only provides: student name, date, assignment name and number. Also, put your name and the assignment number in the document's file name. (To do this, click on "Save as" and under "File name" put your name and assignment number.)

Academic Integrity:

All students are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to:

- Turning in work as original that was used in whole or another course and/or professor.
- Turning in another's work as one's own
- Copying from professional works or Internet sites without citation

Any of the above offenses will result in a zero for the assignment with no option to redo for credit.

Supportive Statement:

I aim to create a learning environment for my students that supports various perspectives and experiences. I understand that the recent pandemic, economic disparity, and health concerns, or even unexpected life events may impact the conditions necessary for you to succeed. My commitment is to be there for you and help you meet the learning objectives of this course. I do this to demonstrate my commitment to you and to the mission of Sul Ross State University to create a supportive environment and care for the whole student as part of the Sul Ross Familia. If you feel like your performance in the class is being impacted by your experiences outside of class, please don't hesitate to come and talk with me. I want to be a resource for you.

Assignments: Your course grade is calculated by summing scores. Assignments do not all have the same points. It is recommended that you review all assignments before beginning as some require interviews that you should arrange at once. The specific instructions for each assignment are found in the Assignment sections of the Blackboard course.

Grading: Grades are based on a point system. There are 100 points available. Scores of:

- 100-90 equate to an A,
- 89-80 equate to a B
- 79-70 equate to a C
- 69-60 equate to a D
- 59 or less receive an F.

“C”s are not accepted in the Educational Leadership Program. If a student earns a “C” in this course, they must repeat the course to stay in the program. See the Student Handbook for more information on GPA and probation status.

It is the student’s responsibility to make sure he/she is officially enrolled in this course. If, at any point, you decide to drop the class, it is your responsibility to officially drop. Any student who stops participating in the course and does not officially drop the course will be given an “F” as the semester grade. Wednesday, September 3, 2024, is the LAST DAY to DROP this course without creating an academic record!

Grading Policy:

1. No late assignment will be accepted after its due date without prior instructor consent.
2. Late assignments will lose 20% of possible points for each day it is late.
3. All citations should be formatted using the American Psychological Association (APA) manual. Papers with APA citation errors will receive a reduction in points or no credit.
4. Extra credit points are not available.
5. There are no I’s (incompletes) for this class.
6. After 11:45 pm on the date for any assignment due is considered late and will result in a lowered grade for that assignment.
7. There are no optional assignments in this course. All assignments must be completed in order to pass this class. Even if an assignment is so late that it will receive a “0”, the student must turn in the assignment in order to pass the course (regardless of number of points accrued in the course.)
8. Students who fail to participate in Discussion Board or complete any assignment may not pass this course. THERE ARE NO OPTIONAL ASSIGNMENTS and no makeup assignments.

Advice: Successful completion of an online course requires dedication and constant effort. Do not fall behind in your work! Begin your assignments as soon as possible and get at least one module ahead. This will help you avoid the penalty for late work because there are always unforeseen events that arise. Submit professional quality work. Have someone proofread your submittals and always use the grammar and spell check functions on your computer before submission.

Attendance:Distance Ed (Web-course) Non-Participation Statement

Policies in effect for on-campus, traditional classroom instruction courses also apply to students enrolled in distance education courses, including Web-based and ITV courses. The University allows a maximum of 20% absences in a course before an instructor may drop a student for excessive absences with a grade of "F". In distance education courses, this policy is interpreted as non-participation; once a student has been documented as non-participating for more than 3 weeks of inactivity during a long semester or 1 week of inactivity during a summer session, the instructor may drop the student from the course with a grade of "F". Non-participation and inactivity may include not logging on to the course, not submitting assignments or participating in other assigned activities as scheduled, not communicating with the instructor by phone or email, and/or not following the instructor's participation guidelines stated in the syllabus.

This is a Web Delivered class. However, the guiding principles of the Sul Ross Absences/Class Attendance Policy are still relevant. Read the policy and note especially the last phrase in the last sentence. If you are not sure what plagiarism is, please read APA pp. 15-16 and 170, or ask during office hours. But remember, the ultimate responsibility is your own. When in doubt, err on the side of caution. You are expected to login to the Bb site several times each week. The University policy for attendance in web-delivered courses states that non-participation (not logging in) for more than 3 weeks in a long session, or for 1 week during a summer session, or 3 days for a midwinter session, may result in the student being dropped from the course by the professor.

Conduct: Academic honesty is expected in all work. Violations will result in course failure. Use of good "Netiquette" is essential in an online environment. Please observe the following rules of common courtesy:

- a) Check the course website frequently and respond appropriately and on subject.
- b) Focus on one subject per message and use pertinent subject titles.
- c) Capitalize words only to highlight an important point or for titles. Capitalizing otherwise is generally interpreted as SHOUTING!
- d) Be professional and careful with your online interaction. Remember that you must be comfortable with your statements if they were published on the front page of the local newspaper.
- e) Cite all quotes, references, and sources.
- f) Never forward someone else's messages without his/her permission; this is extremely rude.
- g) Use humor with care. The absence of face-to-face cues and body language can lead to misunderstandings. Feel free to use emoticons such as :) or ;) to communicate that you are being humorous.
- h) All discussion postings should be of top quality, on time, and rich in text.

The above "netiquette" guidelines were adapted from Rinaldi, A. (1994) The Net User Guidelines and Netiquette, Florida Atlantic University, available from Netcom.

SRSU Distance Education Statement

Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as library resources, online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website. Directions for filing a student complaint are in the student handbook.

Americans with Disabilities Act Statement: Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services. Students seeking accessibility services must contact:

Mary Schwartz-Grisham, M.Ed., LPC
Counseling and Accessibility Services,

Ferguson Hall 112

Mailing Address: P. O. Box C-171; Alpine, TX 79832

Phone: (432) 837-8203

E-mail: mary.schwartz@sulross.edu

If you have an accessibility letter from the C. A. S. it is your responsibility to ensure that the instructor has received a copy of it so your specific accommodations can be met.

Please remember, we offer personal counseling services for students, faculty, and staff.
