Students will work towards the following learning goals and outcomes:

- an awareness of writers from diverse cultural traditions
- an awareness of important terms in Literary Studies
- the ability to analyze a variety of texts in their relevant contexts
- the ability to formulate interpretations through synthesis of material from diverse texts and contexts
- the ability to compose thoughtful analyses
- the ability to present material serving diverse purposes in a variety of forms (oral and written)
- the ability to interact respectfully with others who hold divergent perspectives
- the ability to revise and improve your own written work

Marketable Skills

1. Students will communicate effectively in writing and speaking.
2. Students will use different research strategies to address problems and develop ideas that engage a variety of perspectives.

3. Students will recognize how social and cultural contexts shape meaning and language.

Participation

Active and appropriate class participation in group and individual activities is one step toward getting the most out of this class. Active participation will help your course grade; lack of or inappropriate participation may hurt your course grade. Additionally, please turn off all mobile phones and other similar devices before you enter the classroom.

Quizzes/Reading Responses

One ongoing part of this class will be in-class quizzes, responses, and so on. In order to complete these successfully, it is imperative that you are prepared for class.

ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act)

Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1973. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services. Students seeking accessibility services must contact Mary Schwartz, M. Attendance

This is an interactive course and should you not attend regularly or on time then you will not fulfill class requirements. Your participation is essential in terms of reading, activities, lectures, and discussions. You are responsible for all material covered in class, whether you are present or not. Your responsibilities also extend to checking email and Blackboard on a daily basis. I will honor university approved absences. You must make up any missed work within five days. This is YOUR responsibility. I will allow two unexcused absences only. Absence accrued beyond that number will result in a drastically reduced grade up to the point of possible failure.

Email

Be polite

- Include a salutation (Dear Dr. Peddie)
- Indicate your name, class, and section.
- Indicate the reason for your missive. Use complete sentences and spellcheck
- Please do not send me papers asking me to check them. Come to my office hours and I will be more than happy to help you.
- Do not assume that an email will mean that you will be excused.

Do not send me blank emails with attachments as such items will be deleted without being read

Academic Honesty

Sul Ross students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity and are expected to encourage others to do the same. Further, students are expected to take responsible action when there is reason to suspect dishonesty on the part of others. While it is not possible to list all acts of academic dishonesty, examples include knowingly performing, attempting to perform, or assisting another in performing any act of academic dishonesty; cheating; plagiarism; collusion; submitting previously submitted material; misrepresentation or falsification of material; misrepresentation of circumstances such as illness, conflicting responsibilities. Additional details on academic integrity are found in the college catalogue. Academic dishonesty carries severe penalties ranging from a grade of "0" on the affected assignment to dismissal from Sul Ross State University. Sul Ross State University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is decent, honest, and sensible. For matters of academic honesty, we will adhere to the SRSU Student Handbook.

AI/Auto Generated Text

Using Artificial Intelligence or any other such auto generated text tools constitutes plagiarism. Use of any of these tools will result in immediate failure of the class.

Academic Respect

Students are expected to abide by class policies and procedures and to treat faculty and other students in a professional, respectful manner. Students are expected to be familiar with the student conduct code published in the Student Handbook.
