SRSU Library Services

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library at Sul Ross State University provides free resources and services for the entire SRSU community, including books, articles, and online databases accessible at www.library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires your LoboID and password. A photo ID is required to check out physical materials. Librarians are available for assistance via email (srsulibrary@sulross.edu), phone (432-837-8123), or in person.

For RGC students: You also have access to the Southwest Texas Junior College (SWTJC) Libraries located in Uvalde, Del Rio, and Eagle Pass. These libraries provide additional space and resources, as well as access to online materials via library.swtjc.edu. Moreover, they serve as pickup locations for InterLibrary Loan (ILL) services from the Alpine campus. Logging into your Sul Ross Blackboard account connects you directly to the library webpage, where you can explore online databases and access articles on the reading list. Please note, the syllabus is subject to updates. Regularly check course announcements for changes. The instructor reserves the right to modify the syllabus as necessary.

Course Description

This course offers a comprehensive exploration of sociological perspectives on social deviance, focusing on how societies define, explain, and respond to deviant behavior. Topics include Positivistic Theories of Deviant Behavior and Symbolic Interactionist/Social Constructionist Perspectives, along with the submission of a research topic to guide applied learning. Students will analyze deviant behavior at both individual and group levels, evaluate research findings, and assess the influence of social structures such as class, race, gender, wealth, prestige, and power. The course emphasizes the application of sociological imagination to understand the causes, consequences, and societal impact of deviance.

Course Learning Objective

This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of key issues related to Social Deviance. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

LO1: Define and describe the core sociological concepts, characteristics, and dimensions of social deviance.

LO2: Identify and analyze classical and contemporary theories of deviance and their application to different social contexts.

LO3: Examine individual and group forms of deviant behavior using sociological perspectives.

LO4: Evaluate how deviance is shaped by and connected to social structures such as class, race, gender, wealth, prestige, and power.

LO5: Interpret and apply findings from qualitative and quantitative research to the study of deviance.

LO6: Apply sociological imagination to explain the causes and consequences of deviant behavior.

LO7: Demonstrate critical thinking and effective communication skills by constructing evidence-based analyses of real-world cases of deviance.

Student Learning Outcomes

CJ-GRAD-SLO 1: The student will be able to analyze the function and decision making of the court systems of the United States, including the ability to assess the impact the impact of court rulings, in particular those of the Supreme Court.

CJ-GRAD-SLO 2: Student will be able to identify and apply criminological theories and competing theory arguments.

CJ-GRAD-SLO 3: Student will be able to develop a working knowledge of the process and application of the methods of scientific research, including the ability to critique a piece of research based on its methodology and develop the ability to apply research to Criminal Justice and Homeland Security policy.

Marketable Skills:

Course Policies and Guidelines

Technology Requirements

This course uses Blackboard extensively. Students should check it regularly for:

✦ Announcements

✦ Assignments

✦ Grades

✦ Course materials

Key Blackboard tools: email, discussion boards, Grade Center, SafeAssign, and external links.

You will need:

 Basic computer skills (email with attachments, internet browsing, Word or similar software)

 A reliable computer with stable internet access

 A current web browser capable of streaming and downloading materials

 Blackboard access using your LoboID and password

Help: Tutorials and support are available on the Blackboard support page.

Participation Policy

Even though this is a fully online course, active participation is required. Begin by completing the non-graded “Introduction” discussion post.

Students are expected to:

- ✓ Log into Blackboard regularly
- ✓ Complete all assignments and exams by their posted due dates
- ✓ Contact the instructor via email with any questions

Tip: Consistent engagement is key to success in this course.

Attendance Policy

Attendance and engagement are mandatory. Students may be dropped with an “F” for excessive non-participation, defined as:

-  More than 3 weeks of inactivity in a long semester
-  More than 1 week in a summer session
-  More than 3 days in a midwinter session

Inactivity includes:

- ✗ Not logging into Blackboard
- ✗ Failing to submit assignments
- ✗ Not participating in required activities
- ✗ Not communicating with the instructor
- ✗ Not following participation guidelines in the syllabus

Students must follow academic integrity rules and treat all campus resources professionally. Check your SRSU email regularly, as official communications are sent there.

Late Assignment Policy

All coursework must be submitted by the stated deadlines. Late work is generally not accepted, as due dates are provided at the beginning of the term.

Exceptions are allowed only for documented, university-recognized reasons (e.g., illness, family emergency, military assignment). Documentation must be submitted promptly.

Reminder: Review the syllabus regularly and stay informed of all deadlines.

Academic Integrity

Students must uphold the highest standards of honesty, as outlined in the Sul Ross Student Code of Conduct. Academic dishonesty including cheating, plagiarism, collusion, fabrication, or falsification of records, will not be tolerated.

Definitions:

- Cheating: Using unauthorized materials or assistance during exams, altering records, or obtaining answers dishonestly
- Plagiarism: Submitting someone else’s work, ideas, or words as your own without proper citation
- Collusion: Assisting or being complicit in another student’s academic dishonesty

 Note: Using AI tools like ChatGPT is prohibited unless explicitly allowed for a specific assignment. Violations may result in penalties from a failing grade on the assignment to failure of the course and may lead to further disciplinary action.

Maintaining academic integrity protects both the value of your education and the credibility of the university.

APA Style

All written assignments must follow the American Psychological Association (APA) Seventh Edition formatting and style guide.

Students must:

- Properly cite all external sources
- Follow APA guidelines for in-text citations, references, and formatting

Failure to cite sources correctly constitutes plagiarism and violates course academic honesty standards.

Departmental Undergraduate Program Marketable Skills

(Aligned with Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board – 60x30TX Plan)

The 60x30TX initiative aims for 60% of Texans aged 25–34 to hold a degree or credential by 2030. One key component of this goal is that all graduates from public institutions in Texas will complete academic programs with clearly defined marketable skills—competencies valued by employers that support career readiness and lifelong employability.

Marketable skills include both technical and soft skills—often referred to as “employability” or “transferable” skills—developed through coursework, research, internships, and co-curricular activities. Graduates of the Homeland Security and Criminal Justice Undergraduate Programs at Sul Ross State University will demonstrate the following marketable skills:

1. Effective Verbal and Written Communication
2. Data Literacy and Quantitative Analysis Skills
3. Critical Thinking and Observational Abilities
4. Teamwork and Collaborative Work Practices
5. Cultural Competency and Multicultural Understanding
6. Analytical Skills in Crime Causation and Prevention
7. Knowledge of Legal Codes, Procedures, and Public Safety Protocols

These skills prepare students for diverse roles in law enforcement, homeland security, public service, and justice-related professions.

Course Evaluation

Reaction Papers (150 pts each)

- Weekly, based on readings.
- 1 page, 1.5 spacing, 12pt Times New Roman.

-  1 Topic Proposal / Introduction
-  2 Annotated Bibliography (Midterm)
-  3 Final Paper Submission

Check Blackboard course calendar for all deadlines.

Grading:

- Final Paper is 100 pts, largest component of course grade. Plan and research early.

Guidelines for Reaction Paper:

- Focus on the assigned readings for the week. If multiple readings are assigned, you may choose one for your paper.

- A Reaction Paper is not a summary. It should reflect:
 - Your perspective
 - Analysis and critique of the ideas presented
 - Connections to course themes or real-world applications

Due Date: Every Sunday at 11:00 PM (CT) unless otherwise noted.

Explanation for Midterm Exam

The Midterm Exam consists of an Annotated Bibliography Assignment, which will form part of the literature foundation for your Final Paper.

Requirements:

- Include 10–12 scholarly sources
- Sources must be scholarly, scientific, peer-reviewed journal articles
 - Government or expert reports are the only exceptions
 - Web articles, popular magazines, and newspapers (e.g., NYT, Time, Newsweek) will not receive credit unless reprinted in a peer-reviewed journal
- Articles should reflect scientific research and use appropriate research methods

Grading Criteria for Final Paper:

- Clear thesis and argument
- Depth of analysis and application of sociological concepts
- Proper use of APA formatting and citations
- Quality and relevance of sources

For Each Source, Your Annotation Should Address the Following:

1. Author(s): Who wrote the article?
2. Purpose: What was the author's purpose in writing this piece?
3. Major Findings: What are the key assertions or findings of the article?
4. Evidence: How does the author support these findings?
5. Comparison: How does this source compare or contrast with another source in your bibliography?
6. Relevance: How does this source contribute to your understanding of your chosen Final Paper topic?
7. Research Methods: What research methods were used in this study?

Final / Research Paper (100 Points)

Your Final Paper will focus on a topic related to Social Deviance and Crime, in keeping with the overall focus of this course. You may select any element of white-collar crime to explore in depth, including but not limited to:

- Policy responses
- Causes and contributing factors
- Theoretical explanations
- Impacts and scope
- Types of white-collar crime
- Industries and areas affected
- Offender techniques
- Detection and investigation methods
- Sentencing practices

- Landmark cases

A sample paper will be posted on Blackboard to provide guidance on proper formatting and structure. You will write a final paper on one of the transnational crimes covered in chapters 4-13. The paper should.

- be 10 to 15 pages (this is the body of your paper excluding everything else)
- include these parts: Title page (1 page), Table of Contents (1 page), Abstract (1 page), Body of the paper - one of the transnational crimes covered in chapters 4-13 (10+ pages), References (1 page), Appendices (if any) (see APA Manual for formatting guidelines),
- be typed, double-spaced, 1-inch margins, 12-point Calibri font,
- include at least five scholarly citations other than the ones we covered in the class (not website articles, Wikipedia, news agencies, magazines, etc.), and
- be written according to APA formatting and citation style. Save and attach your final paper using the following naming format exactly:

Final Paper_2025_SUMM_30282_CJ_5328_FirstName_LastName

Please attach your Final Paper and submit it to me using Blackboard Module, ensuring you put the same name of your Final Paper as explained above.
