Credit in this course cannot be used to satisfy requirements for any degree.

PAIRED ENG 0310/ENG 1301: You are enrolled in both ENG 0310 and ENG 1301. Your ENG 0310 class is designed to help you be successful in your ENG 1301 class.

- If you pass ENG 0310 with a grade of “A,” “B,” or “C” and you pass ENG 1310, then you will be TSI-clear in reading and writing at the end of the semester.
- If you pass ENG 0310 with a “C” or better, but fail ENG 1301, then you will retake ENG 1301.
- If you pass ENG 1301 with a “D” or better, but you fail ENG 0310, then you are TSI clear in reading and writing.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS: See your instructor's syllabus addendum for specific requirements.

METHOD OF EVALUATION: See your instructor's syllabus addendum for specific requirements. The grade of "PR" (Progress) can only be earned the first semester that you take this course. If you have to retake the course, then you may only receive a traditional letter grade.

ACADEMIC ETHICS: Please remember that real success comes from learning how to do the work yourself. Your instructors believe that you are an honest individual and expect that all of the work that you do results from your own efforts. You know that a college education costs too much for you to waste your time trying to beat the system rather than figuring out how to learn the material. You know that any form of cheating is dishonest and it makes you look very bad. Your instructor will have specific responses to any academic dishonesty that s/he may encounter. A repeated instance of academic dishonesty may result in your situation being forwarded to the Dean of Student Life. Please see the SRSU Student Handbook for a more complete discussion of academic honesty.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Sul Ross State University and the State of Texas require each student liable for any portion of the Texas Success Initiative (TSI) to attend and participate in developmental coursework. If you fail to attend and/or participate, you will earn an "F" for the course. Additionally, it is a course requirement that you take both the midterm and final exams. Failure to do so could result in your earning an “F” for the course.

If you must be absent, you are responsible for finding out what was covered and assigned in class in order to be prepared when you return to class. According to the University catalog, “When a student has to miss class due to an authorized University activity, it will be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor of the class in advance [and to complete all assignments] within a reasonable time and at the convenience of the instructor.”

See your instructor’s syllabus addendum for specific attendance criteria.

If you are absent from class, you will want to contact a classmate and get the notes that you missed.

COURSE COMMITMENT: You will make the decision about how long it takes you to clear your developmental writing requirement. Please keep these thoughts in mind:

- 1) Your registration in this course is the result of your writing test scores at this time. We want you to be successful in your college-level writing courses, so learn everything that you can in this class.
- 2) It costs as much to take this class (at least $830) as it does to take any other SRSU three-hour course. This course does not count towards your degree. You will save a significant amount of money and time if you decide to fulfill your developmental reading requirement.
- 3) You are the only one who can commit to be successful in this class. You will decide how much time you spend doing homework, asking your instructor questions, and visiting with a tutor. So come to class and complete this course with a grade of “C” or better this semester.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE: Tutors are available in the Tutoring and Learning Center, Library first floor, free of charge. Please check with the Tutoring and Learning Center for hours and days of tutor availability.

This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.
