Course Objectives:

The objective of this course is to provide a history of modern East Asia emphasizing the histories of Japan, China, and North and South Korea, and Vietnam.

Course Requirement and Grading:

The course requirements are as follows:

- Attend class. These lectures will be recorded on Blackboard Collaborate so if you do happen to miss a class, you can watch the recordings and get the information presented as well as staying informed of changes that may arise during the semester.
- Read both the text and take notes from lectures, as well as participate in class discussions.
- You will write eight essay exams and the dates will be announced in class. Basically, at the end of each of the Eight sections presented below, you will be given one week to write your essay exams that will cover the textbook readings as well as the material presented in the lectures. At the end of the week, you will submit your essay-exams through Blackboard.
- Each of the Eight exams will be worth 100 points and at the end of the semester I will add up the Nine exams and divide them by Eight; 90-100=A; 80-89=B; 70-79=C; 60-69=D; 0-59=F
- Smile, learning is fun and important.

Course Policies:

Contacting the Instructor: The instructor's email is the preferred method of contact.

Msaka@sulross.edu. Please contact me only through the Sul-Ross email as I do not respond to private email such as yahoo, gmail, Hotmail, etc. This is for yours and my security.

I do, however, have a backup email, mark.saka1@yahoo.com. This is a backup in the event of a malware attack or if for some other reason the system goes down. I rarely check it as I want you to only use my yahoo account for emergencies. I check my Sul Ross email regularly. Please stay in contact if you are ill or cannot make class for a legitimate reason.

Academic Integrity: Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to:

- Turning in work as original that was used in whole or par for another course and/or for another course and/or professor.
- Turning in another persons' work as one's own.
- Copying from professional works or internet sites without citations.
- Collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

Classroom Climate of Respect:

Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still, we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing sensitive political issues.
