Course Description

This is an advanced concept and technique class in Painting (watercolor, oil or acrylic) or works on Paper. It is generally as a coinciding class to ART 5304. Exploration of thematic concept, color theory, composition, advanced techniques and consistency in medium is required. Students may only work in one medium per semester, unless a unique series of work has been agreed upon with the instructor.

REQUIRED WORK:

You must choose one medium and theme and stick to it all semester.

A consistent thematic portfolio 7 large or 10 smaller compositions, with thumbnail studies.

Size of work should be 10 finished: 24 x 30" or 7 - 30" x 40" or larger. A 52" x 72" will count as 2.5 paintings. You may also choose to do two small paintings 16 X 20 for the first assignment.

Specific goals may be set for each student, pertaining to their style, theatics and based on their individual strengths and weaknesses.

All work must show evidence of consistent work habits and intent throughout the semester. Students must be able to discuss use of Composition: Focal points, spatial relations, color theory and palette choices, texture, content/context to Art History, and use of theatics.

The work must show evidence of consistent work habits and intent through out the semester. Although a set size format and number of works been established, individual directions and specific ideas can be substituted with the permission of the instructor as long as the project and the amount of work is equal to the original portfolio.

Three (3) essays on contemporary Art Exhibits

JPEG images of your semesters work. Jpegs should be 600dpi, color correct, cropped to size and labeled with name and number (fairlie#1.jpeg). These are due in the week of finals.

Also include a typed word document with your name, title, medium, size, and date completed. This should correspond to your jpeg images. Jpegs should be 600dpi.

SUPPLIES:

Students are expected to have their own paints and brushes.

You are expected to keep your work area clean, and to take care of your own equipment

ATTENDANCE:

The structure of the “4301/5304 studio class” course requires consistent attendance. This class is required to cover 96 studio class hours.

You should be prepared to put in at least 10-15 hours per week to finish your work. This means You are expected to paint regularly, and have a scheduled studio hour!

Work not finished by the due date, will be dropped a letter grade per class day.

After 4 class days the grade becomes an “F”.

Class is scheduled for 6 hours a week, and I expect you to work at least 3-10 in the studio outside of class, you need to be in the studio during scheduled class hours.

Scheduled critiques and personal critique times will be held on opposite weeks and both require constant attendance! If you can't be there, I need to know in advance! 837-8258 or 294-1313.

More than three (3) absences without an official excuse will result in an evaluation adjustment at the end of the semester.

CRITIQUES:

Students are expected to be in class working during scheduled class hours.

You are expected to be painting daily. I should be able to walk in and see your progress, give you pointers and critiques. If you are not in when I show up, you are considered absent.

Critiques will be held every other week on Monday at 2:00. Changes in schedule may occur as the semester progresses.

- Be consistent.

Artist Statement: This is a simple statement that will explain the motivation behind your paintings, the reason for the colors and techniques you chose, and how it ties into your other works or interests. Every semester this is built upon in preparation for a show.

If there is an emergency situation let me know as soon as possible!

Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences.

GRADING

I grade on a 100 point scale. A painting that is 50% done is a 50.

You MUST finish paintings in sequential order, you may start a new one or two at a time, but you must finish them.

A grade will be given at mid-semester and at final review. This grade will be a combination of a grade on your paintings, your studies, critique attendance, and participation.

In grading your work, I will look for the

- * Idea development
- * Compositional structure: Design, value, space, and color!!!
- * Technique and use of medium
- * Originality and initiative

Unfinished work will not be graded higher than a 75, (C).

Evaluation:

You will lose points if your work finished on time.

You will lose points if I do not see evidence of consistent work habits.

You will lose points if you don't rework assignments after critique.

Disabilities: Please notify me if you have a disability that requires accommodation. If you would like to request such accommodation because of a physical, mental, or learning disability, please contact the ADA Coordinator for Program Accessibility The Student life office of the Morgan Student Center.

Academic honesty: The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. More information on this can be found in the SRSU Rules & Regulations supplement to the Student Handbook.

Cell phones must be set on soft vibrate and may not be answered in class. Personal head gear can be worn but should be low enough that you can hear someone talking to you and no one else can hear you. Music may be played in the classroom as long as all students want to hear it.

Since this class is held in a different building, off campus, I will have my cell phone on and be available if you or another student needs to call me.

Answering phone calls for Emergency personnel and family emergencies are exempt only if you let me know in advance.

Studio Hours: The majority of your grade is based on work done during class, therefore, it is expected that each student will attend all required hours of class (96 studio class hours).

Sul Ross policy states that one absence is equal to 50 minutes. More than three (3) absences from drawing class will result in the lowering of the final evaluation by one letter grade. Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences. Your name will be given to UDPS for building and room access.
