Course Conduct: Refer to the Student Conduct and Discipline section of the SRSU Student Handbook.

SRSU Disability Services: Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request each semester for each class. Alpine students seeking accessibility/accommodations services should contact SRSU's Accessibility Services Coordinator at 432.837.8203. For more information, see <https://www.sulross.edu/counseling-and-accessibility-services/>.

The Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library in Alpine: This library offers free resources and services to the entire SRSU community. The library's website is library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your LoboID and password. Librarians are a great resource for your coursework and can be reached in person, by email (srsulibrary@sulross.edu), or by phone (432.837.8123).

Academic Honesty: Any instance of academic misconduct such as (1) turning in an identical written assignment for another course without approval, (2) copying from any source without proper citation, (3) crossing the boundary of what is allowed in a group project, (4) lying in connection with your academic work, (5) cheating, (6) plagiarism, (7) misrepresenting facts and/or collusion are contrary to the purpose of any educational institution and may be dealt with most severely to the extent of the university's disciplinary policy and/or through legal action if indicated. An instructor who determines that a student has been dishonest academically can, at a minimum, issue no credit for the assignment/exam and/or pursue more severe penalties, including but not limited to failing the course. Before the penalty is imposed, the student has the right to appeal to the division chairperson or Assistant Provost for Academic Affairs. Information about Academic Honesty can be read in the SRSU Student Handbook and procedures for dealing with these acts are outlined in the Academic Honesty Policy under Undergraduate Academic Regulations.

Class Participation: You are expected to come prepared to participate in class and engage in class discussions.

Class Attendance: The SRSU Undergraduate Academic Regulations policy governs attendance stated in the schedule of classes. If you are unable to participate in class every week, please discuss the reason with the instructor and ensure that you are keeping up with the coursework. Excused absences entail established religious observance or providing emergency, university-authorized, legal, or medical documentation. Excessive unexcused absences (more than 2 weeks) result in a failing grade for the course.

Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as library resources, online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies on academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Complaints: Directions for filing a student complaint are located in the Student Handbook.

Communications with the instructor: You may contact me through email at Josef.Mathews@sulross.edu. General questions are to be posted to a discussion board for all. For personal or private issues, please email me or make an appointment. I will try to respond within 24 hours Monday-Friday.

Course Behaviors, Respect and Disruptions. Watch the VIDEO on NETTIQUETTE - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FWMk_Zv7nB8 and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=80uRE972uQ0>. You are encouraged and expected to openly engage in discussions, ask questions, share ideas, and express your thoughts in this web-based course in the same manner as in a face-to-face course. Please treat each other with dignity and respect and avoid disruptive behaviors. You are responsible for knowing what behaviors are acceptable and which ones are unacceptable, as referred to in the Student Conduct and Discipline section of the SRSU Student Handbook (http://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files//sites/default/files/users/docs/stulife/student_conduct_discipline.pdf).

Cell phone and computer use: You should be fully engaged in the class's activity during the entire class period. Laptop computers or phones are welcome for academic purposes, such as note-taking or following along with the instructor's lesson. Off-topic activity (e.g., reading texts or posts, checking email, game playing) not directly related to the class is considered disrespectful. It can result in being marked "absent" for the day.

Late Assignments: You are expected to meet the deadlines. Assignments submitted after their due dates without a legitimate excuse will be marked down 25%.

Final Exam: It is optional if the following two conditions are met: (1) you miss no more than four classes (the equivalent of two weeks), and (2) you have at least an A in the course. If you meet both conditions, you may elect to opt out of the final and keep the grade you have. The final will be comprehensive and will consist of multiple choice questions.
