

LOBO PANTRY

The Lobo Pantry is a temporary, judgement free resource for students experiencing food insecurity. Students are eligible to visit the pantry once per month. The Lobo Pantry is located in Ferguson 108 and is managed by the Office of Civic Engagement & Student Assistance.

In Fall 2024, the Lobo Pantry had 613 visits serving 333 unique individuals. 41% of those individuals have used the pantry more than once.

Fall 2024 Usage Breakdown

Growth & Changes

Monthly visits are down for Fall '24; however, produce engagement has increased. In addition, our overall clientele has increased by 254% since Fall '22, going from 94 users to 333 users of the Lobo Pantry.

Produce

We offered 3 produce distributions for a total student participation of 384. The largest engagement occurred with WTFB's Farmer's Market during the first week of the semester, engaging 245 students (64% of our total produce usage)

Swipe Out Hunger

Katy Williams, Director, serves on the Swipe Out Hunger National Leadership Advisory Council for 2024-2025.

Lion's Club Donation

The Alpine Lion's Club donated $500 to the pantry in December 2024.